But they do have the legal right to collect this money or a lot of folks who have gone before would have tried this approach. It won't work. Others have paid fines to the FCC for less blatant violations of the rules. Best get a good lawyer and start collecting the money from the change jar, bank accounts, car ash tray etc. Somebody is going to have to come up with $21k. As noted by others, this 50K limit does not apply to this case, but have fun using this defence in court. I can hear it now, "Objection over-ruled! Sit down Mr Baxter!"

A jury trial would be fun to watch, but there would be no doubt about the outcome if Baxter chooses to continue to represent himself. I'm sure a jury of his peers would understand the part 97 rules and how they where broken.

>From my perspective this does not apply in this case any more. The FO pretty much resolves this issue so the FCC can use this enforcement issue to deny the pending renewal application, paid or not. However, that need not be the reason used to deny the renewal. I'm sure they have other things they can use to justify a denial if they wanted to.
All they need to do is dust off some different violations for which they have collected evidence and voila, application denied. The don't even need a rules violation, just a determination that he would be unfit. Now that's a tough argument.. :)

> 4. By statute, K1MAN can and will continue to operate until the

I would not try to operate after the application is denied. Once K1MAN gets the "you no longer have authority to operate" letter from the FCC, he'd best stop. Of course the FCC is well within their rights to keep the application in pending status as long as they choose. The denial may come out today, or may take years. I think it will be sooner rather than later, but I give it a few months yet before they deny the renewal. I'm sure they plan to be totally sure he's not going to pay the fine before they deny the application so any time after the end of the month.

Unless Baxter wants to just loose $21k to help fund the FCC, I would suggest that he contact them through a competent lawyer and seek some sort of settlement terms. Perhaps a life time ban from Part 97 operations, liquidation of all his part 97 capable equipment, promise to not seek a future license while the FCC forgoes the collection of the fines. But hey, it may be to late for even that. I'd bet the FCC has him dead to rights on this fine, he will loose his renewal bid, pay the fine and then who knows what he will do? I'm guessing here, but I'll bet the FCC would agree to him going willingly into part 15 operations and forget the fine under the right conditions.

Based upon is rhetoric it seems that he will be dragged kicking and screaming from his shack and off to jail, while his equipment is confiscated. One can only hope that this is rhetoric and that at some point he will "come to his senses" and give up.

He will pay the fine or cut a deal with the FCC. Either way he will eventually loose his license.

Ham Radio Operators are GOLD PLATED KOOKS!
Trust me on this one. I have two of these weirdoes living down the block from me and they are VERY strange people. When they are not interfering with my Cable TV they are scrounging around the neighborhood in their beat up old cars looking for electronics junk or finally cutting their lawns which seem to be in a near-forever state of un-cut 12" tall grass and weeds.
Their kids run around in rags and beat up old dollar store sneakers cause the wifie of one of em told me her "bastard husband she never should have married" spends all his money on radio gear and/or getting tanked up on booze at the local Am Legion Hall. Trust me pookie.
You don't want hams in your neighborhood. They remind me of the kind of people who go and shoot up Post Offices and/or their Ex-Employers...

So you've acknowledged that you have, as I said all along, engaged in a wanton pattern of abuse and spamming.

And you've again uttered yet another lie as you've suggest that you've somehow denied me access or use of RRAP.

Mark, WHY do you insist on being so prolific in your lying?

That just about says it all about Jeff Gordon. He is definitely the pot calling the kettle black! He is a wimp. Has been for many years. And a gay boy at that!

That was all brought to bear for all to see in his recent clash with Matt Kenseth in a post-race brouhaha. Jeff approached Matt while Gordon continued to wear his race helmet. And pushed Matt Kenseth back. My money would be on Matt Kenseth anyday for Matt to kick Jeffy's ass!

Jeff Gordon - pussy boy!

I, Roger Leo Wiseman, AB8MQ, being of unsound mind
have an offer to make to others who are like me.

I live at 610 Glen Haven Avenue in Glendale, West Virginia.

I have a two bedroom house that is situated in a quiet and quaint part of West Virginia. My house has 800 square feet of floor space, has one bathroom with hot and cold running water and a toilet that works most of the time.

I am looking for a like-minded roommate who can use the second bedroom,
which measures eight by ten feet.

The kitchen has a gas stove and a microwave, both of which worked at the time of this writing.

If you are interested in sharing my humble home
and can afford $400 per month rent, let me know. I require only that you pay cash up front at the first of each month.

I will not ask for, nor will I look into your criminal background since I have one of my own.

Also, don't worry about the local Police. They all know me so if you see a squad car parked down the block during the day, ignore them. The Chief often stops by just to see how I am doing.

Old friend,

No, I shall not leave your group. Your group has discussed Jeff Gordon in the past. And all was ok then. And now I want to be discussing Jeff Gordon in OUR newsgroup NOW.
So you shall not vanquish me, my friend, no matter how hard you try. Your attempts at censorship (via culling of groups) shall not be successful. Everyone needs to be able to see for themselves what a dweeb you are, pretty boy!

Care to have a thinking debate or are you going to continue to post flames?

Seems to me that a Forfeiture Order is sort of final from the FCC's perspective. Pay up or face the DOJ in court when they attempt to collect the fine.

An you don't think that the FCC will simply renew his license do you?

Actually, Morkie, you're in flagrant violation of your ISP's rules.

I didn't post the item you're attributing to me, Morkie...But it brings up and intersting idea...ESPECIALLY since we now have you bragging in the NG about your abuse and spamming of the NG for personal gain.

Hmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmm......

I wonder how many ISP's there are in Houghton County...?!?!

There's always dial-up! Ask Toiddie!

I love the crosslinked one In stouis I could reach it from illiopolis but I got down close enough to stl Mo to use fairly often

I admit I had not thought of echolink I have NO experence with it yet since none of the local repatershave it and and havement had enough time anywhere it is used to try it out

The proof that you collect public assistence can be found by anyone determined to find it. I did.

And I don't need the "proof" that you are not married. You don't have a marriage certificate. The "person" residing at your address that recently got an Amateur license obviously doesn't think much about you, either. "She" didn't even care enough to take your name when he married you.

It's "H O M O S E X U A L", Mork.

And yes, you have admitted that you sleep with men. You're gay.

There's nothing to "brazen out".

You've not provided any input on who your employer allegedly is nor any evidence that you have a license to conduct business in the State of Michigan.

On the otherhand there's a person named Mark C. Morgan in Chassell, MI, receiving public assistance. Is there MORE than ONE Mark
C. Morgan in Chassell...?!?!

> > And I don't need the "proof" that you are not married.

Nope. It's not possible to prove that an non-existant thing exists, Mork.

Then where is it?

Before you could import your "wife" the marraige certificate had to be endorsed into the United States.

Muahahhahaha. I guess everyone ought to send him a rubber dick for his birthday. But then again after he gets bombarded with 100 rubber dicks, thats still a lot less than the number of actual dicks that have been put into him.

no lie
you were warned that if you arrvied at my door your be greeted as the clear threat uo would be in such an event indeed your words "Stop now before you get hurt"is justification for warning that you arrvial will be deemed a threat not at all nothing ilegal in stating the fact that if you show up I am sure one or both of us will wind up dead, and that I would take actions to see in event you show up here I will tryto see to it that if violence breaks out it is you that suffers care to lie about my wifes gender or say agian you have never hreatened when you have this very night "Stop now before you get hurt"

that I need a busness license in michigan for my feild ofwork I might need DBA if I did not use my name in my busness but I do use my name still brazening out you lie that I am welfare or that you have any proof I am on welfare,

your lie that I am child molestor or rapist or homosexaul,

that my wife is male instead of female

that she is born in another country

that is just a partail list of the leies you have told tonight

Never lied about your "wifes" gender, Mork. I am sure he's a nice fella.

You're not "brazening" anything.

You're a welfare cheat. Period.

You're all three, so where did >>>I<<< "lie"...?!?!

> that my wife is male instead of female

We KNOW "she's" a male, Morkie.

> that she is born in another country

"She" was.

"partail"...?!?!

Nope...No PARITAL list, Morkie.

All facts.

Sure you do.

If you perform a service for hire in the State of Michigan you require a business license. Otherwise you're guilty of tax evasion.

another lie

we did not HAVE to go to Isreal to get married but a number (prehaps even many Jews) like to get married there,she wanted it to be in Jerselam but I did object to that because with the 2 faced standof the USA on that city that could have been a legal problem

I LOVE it when you try to insult somone by calling them an "idoit".

No, Morkie...The applicant's place of birth is supposed to be on the marriage certificate.

The point is I don't believe you.

You allege that you got married in Israel. First of all I don't believe you were even IN Israel, nor do I believe you married a "woman".

Until I see a picture of the two of you standing together with you holding up a placard with the date and her with a sign that says "I Am Mork Moron's Wife", there's nothing to believe of your story. We can't get the truth out of you so whatever else seems plausible must be right.

Who are you addressing this to?

You've chased off anyone else with a responsible thought in their head, Morkie...You've even admitted that you did it. So NOW you want to "discuss" something...?!?! I'm only here because I LOVE watching you do the Red Hatted Monkey jig.

And WTF is a "currect"...?!?!

Idiot!

6011. An Introduction and Refresher On Mark, "I Am A Gay Pagan Draftee Officer" Morgan, KB9RQZ

For those of you just getting to know "Mark Morgan, KB9RQZ" via his spamming and cross-posting of RRAP and other "rec.radio" groups, a little intro is due.

Mark started in here about 8 years ago with his functionally illiterate diatribes, mostly trying to get support for his "waivers" for Morse Code due to alleged neurological deficits, among which he alledges being "dyslexic".

The problem is Morkie tried to get an allergist to write his "waiver" for him. After having claimed an IQ of over 240, one has to wonder on what two fingers he added that up on. It was suggested he see a neurologist, but like every attempt to help him, he told those who suggested it to get ####ed.

On finding out that I was an enlisted retiree from the USMC, Morkie started in on tales of how >>>HE<<< was not only an officer, but a COLONEL in the US Army "chemical corps", and that he was DRAFTED ta-boot!...As if that meant a rat's pack of snot in this forum!

Of course Morkie didn't count on anyone actually being able to do math better than he...You see, based upon his birthday (which was once in QRZ), Morkie would have only been SEVEN years old when the drafted ENDED in the United States...

Anyone seeing a pattern here?

When he was busted with this fact, he then relented and "admitted" that he was "only" a lieutenant, but that his unit CO wouldn't let him resign even though he's an admitted sexual deviate. Of course he's since changed even THAT story, and he now tells a tale of how he was an enlisted clerk in the Army, discharged for emotional problems.

Yeah...Right. A "clerk" who can't even SPELL "clerk"... ! ! ! !

Over the past several years, Morkie has alternatively denied being a mental health patient, then admitted that he's being treated for
"anger issues". He's also lied about being in trouble with the law...You see, Markie likes to "care" for his elderly father by taking advantage of him, then skirting the law. It's been a close shave.

Now Morkie's moved from his previous QTH in south-central Illinois to the Michigan Upper Penninsula in order to (A) avoid the aforementioned abuse issues, and to (B) take advantage of more lenient welfare laws that allow him to pork out at home while allowing you and I to "earn" his income for him.

Among his many NG credits are his claims of being stalked, his admission (and only redeeming attribute) that he not only lies, but does so without moral reservation, and that he believes that children should be TAUGHT to lie.

Morkie now "claims" to be married, but can't seem to produce any evidence of it, other than to point to the recent Amateur Radio licensure of a female-sounding named person who shares his POB in Chassell, Michigan.

Oh yeah...His "wife"...Allegedly a law clerk or paralegal of some sort, they were allegedly married in Israel. No doubt a green card scam if they are indeed "married". Obviously she doesn't care enough about him to take his name, even to have it hyphenated with hers.

So ...for those of you just tuning in, sit back and enjoy the flailings of Mark C. "I Am A Drafted Gay Pagen Chemical Corps Officer" Morgan.

He never disappoints!

You're not adequately informed or knowledgeable about the topic to English, PutzBoy...The language of this forum is English.

Nope. Not at all.

As a matter of fact, several of us ahve tried to talk to you in the past...Allw e got was "lier", "fraud" and other hateful retorts.

Mostly due to your lack of ability to carry on meaningful exchange, either in technical, regulatory or operational aspects of Amateur Radio.

No, I didn't.

Our first exchange, Morkie, was about from where the FCC got it's authority to make regulations. I cited the Communications Act of 1934 and you called me a "lier" in the very next post.

I spent several days there after trying to get you to pay attention.

It didn't work then, either.

In our first exchanges I had no clue as to what class of license you had.

But YOU made it a point of victimizing yourself very quickly.

Sure I can.

No, you can't.

This very post was laced with your intentional inaccuracies.

why can't e just accept the factIgo both ways and move on?

but for some reason he has to lie.

why is that?

the obvously and therefore most likely reason is that steve has trouble wit his natural sexaul desires for men, and only by dening the truth of my existance can he convince himself he is hetero

Yes, Morkie...You're commiting the greatest lie possible...To yourself.

How shameful.

The only one here "sick" is the one who started all the "Are You Ready To Go To Bed Yet" posts, Morkie. Sorry I am keeping you out of bed, but you forget that this is the "middle of the day" for me...!

I don't need a defense, Mork.

You're the one with the threats.

Nope. Look who the fool is, Morkie...

You've been whining about going to bed for three hours now but keep fielding more silly posts.

See what I mean about skills...?!?!

Only an idiot would "get in (your) face" to conduct a gunfight, Morkie.

YOU need a shotgun and zero-point-squat range to hit a target.

I don't.

> I sware you must be sucidal

You "sware"...?!?! Really? What's that?

"Sucidal"...?!?!?

It ain't squat, PutzBoy.

Robin, Carol, and Kim, among others, are "female" names, yet there's tons of MEN with those names.

No there's not.

A preference for the same gender is a perversion of the norm.

PERVERSION.

I'm not sure now, Morkie. You said that YOU "married female". Of course you're too stupid to realize that the way you wrote the sentence it puts you in the position of stating that you married AS a female.

Nope.

YOU need to give us the name of the "company", your business card, etc.

> no once can prove a negitive you said that yourself (more or les)

But you CAN prove you have a "real" job.

> youalso claim you never asked to do so

I haven't.

I say you're on welfare. There's evidence that supports that.

A simple revelation of your "job" would stop all of that...And I mean VERIFYABLE information...Your "word" has already been proven worthless.

Oh, the irony:

BILLY SMITH STEPS ON HIS OWN DICK THUSLY WITH THESE FUCK-UPS:

Billy "Dumbass who can't put together a sentence" Smith shows off those English skills, quite ironically in <VfQHf.14581$rH5.8121@newsread2.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"That's interesting there idiot. I bet you really did flunk high school math and probably elementary too. Oh thats right, wasn't that when was in Floriduh. Spelled Florida but the DUH is for your Dumb Ass."

"wasn't that when was in Floriduh" - Billy makes good fuck up!

Billy "shoots" himself in his palsied club foot once again in Message-ID: <Q0bJf.19641$vU2.7735@newsread3.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Roger, shots himself in the foot"

Billy the illiterate retard Smith screws up again, and his illiteracy is exposed. "It serves him right." in <hauKf.1410$S25.940@newsread1.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
```

"Deserves him right."

Billy "retard" Smith confesses to his generally accepted retarded
status in <LwpLf.2321$F56.2317@newsread3.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"I'm a general retard. bwhahaha"

hygiene but is still in denial about his English skills in <QxpLf.2322$F56.1169@newsread3.news.atl.earthlink.net>
"Sure I can spell and smell."

"Billy" the NOtwordSmith fucks up again with this incompete sentence in <qgyNf.5576$S25.341@newsread1.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"So when you got divorced boy, did your finally figure out that your more"

Billy "cumgargler" Smith managed to awaken from his drunken stupor to slobber
in <fbIOf.442$sL2.25@newsread2.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Isn't that you mom weighed"

Mr."Education" Billy Smith steps on his own dick again when he talks about others' "educations" (or educatiion" as he spells it) in <w7IOf.436$sL2.167@newsread2.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Uh, huh. Right LOSER. Still smoking that dope again? By the way how is your
so called educatiion actually doing for you? Those online classes."

<B9IOf.439$sL2.255@newsread2.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"You're whole life has been exhaled before."

Billy "illiterate retard" Smith spikes the "HUH?" factor in this slobbering in <MGqUf.16833$S25.8455@newsread1.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Come on, do it just have you some spiked Kool Aid."

"Didn't" your special-Ed teacher teach you how to spell, Billy?
in <OCqUf.16826$S25.10695@newsread1.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"...didnt Marie teach you to play nice"

"Rhodes scholar" Billy Lardass Davies Smith blunders and blows his cover again again in <Et%0g.6340$sq5.1769@newsread2.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Rhode's scholar Scheissman blows his cover again."

Now THAT is irony.

Maybe Toad can help you get a step up from that high school kid's pizza delivery BOY job, Lardass, he'll soon be back at Wal-Mart, stocking shelves. Maybe he could put in a good word for you, they can't discriminate against you faggots because of your sexual preference.
They hired an illiterate like Toad, so they'll hire you unless you tell them you've been fired from every job you've ever held except the pizza boy one you have rto work at.

There's another sign of being an idiot. Having to ask what it is that MAKES you an idiot...And posting from OLD posts that just open the door for being made an even BIGGER fool of.

> you have no right to demand I please you

Sure I do. Just like YOU demand that everyone in RRAP step aside while you engage in this imagined war of yours.

No. You "cvhose" to look like an idiot.

A dozen people have told you as many ways to correct your iditotic looking posts but you refuse them all.

Ergo you CHOOSE to look like an idiot.

Mark,
I really could care less about what or who you are, but this constant changing of screen nics is against your ISP TOS. I have kill filed some 15 plus screen nics, to no avail. There was a person that did that all the time before, when enough people started sending complaints complete with copies of the posts showing that he was doing nothing more than causing problems and purposely, they sent him warnings and he stopped changing screen nics.
Again, I could care less about you, but I get tired of you changing screen names just to by pass filters so you can get the attention you crave.

Please stop changing your screen nics so others can enjoy what little these groups have to offer.

I don't need to. You've already done it.

Your posting habits indicate you're home at all hours seven days a week. You refuse to say what it is you allegedly do or who you do it for, and you don't have a business license to do ANYTHING.

Unless your "wife" is independently wealthy or you're living off the reserves of the money you embezzled from all those Jewish organizations, you've got to be on welfare. Or selling illegal drugs.

It will come to the surface eventually, Morkie. You can either tell me now, or I WILL make sure it's everywhere when I do find it.

> and you claim to have proof I receive welfare

I do.

You're fat, you're in front of the computer all day, and you can't provide any evidence of legitimate income. So it's either welfare or illegal drugs.

> you have advanced the suposition that I no job so I must be but your Lot's of random words in search of meaning and order, Your Putziness.

Take another running start at that and try English.

> I could be wealth and reitred (could be not advancing or dening it) or
> I could mouching off my old Man

Mooching off the old man IS part of it.

You claimed he lives with you, yet last night you said he's getting "assistance" for his utilities, which tells me that he's probably the source of your dishonesty issues...Either that or you filed the claim in his name unbeknownst to him, which is more beliveable.

I really think it is extremely sick that such young women, with their whole lives ahead of them, would marry such a couple of ugly, sick, fucked-up old men. Art has alienated all of his friends and a majority of his fan base by taking this inadvisable action. And why would he want to move to the Philippines? Doesn't the dumb fuck know that, with all his fame and money, he'll be a sitting duck for muslim terrorists? How much has he budgeted for a security detail? Or does he intend to stay in his apartment all the time, like he did in his house in Pahrump? Is he still going to sleep all day and let his bride do all the work, then get up in the evening and stay up all night jacking off, like he did when he was married to his "true love" Ramona, whom he forgot about 2 weeks after she died? Talk about screwing up your life! You can't believe how many of his friends feel completely betrayed that he would do something like this, after all the bullshit he gave them. It's really making a lot of his friends suspect that perhaps he had something to do with Ramona's death, and that he's skipping the country before the homicide investigators begin asking embarassing questions. Or perhaps that he has trouble with the U.S. government (false tax returns, perhaps?) and wants to escape to a more friendly country where he can buy government influence and avoid extradition. But the real question is, how screwed up is the American public, that they would actually IDOLIZE a fuckup like Art?

The May issue of Worldradio Magazine came today and has a big article talking about how ham radio is going 100% digital very soon. The writer says it will be less than 10 years before all SSB, CW and whatever is gone and hams are forced to have digital radios. Its titled Digitalization and starts on page 40.

well at least a policy related topic. thank you now that sais I have heard this before indeed digatl was suposed have all am shortwave by now and all comercail FM but we have aviation still using AM voice

I would almost enjoy seeing some body tring to impose a wrold wide standard on the HF

the WRC process took what 30 ? 40 years to finaly work through the code no code effortsand indeed ifI rember wrc are every 3 years and we ought be having one realy soon mensing theext it could brought up is 2009-2010not likelyto pass on the first go round psushing discusion to 2013 or so and the with agreement the FCC might begin to act on by 2016 (juding by the length time varios bits of WRC-06 aree going) Fcc R&o not slikely soner than 2017 mmeaning even if the tend reported is right the time is well off to put it mildly

well, it depends really, if the bands open you can talk dx on 2 meters. I've done DX on a 23cm repeaters talked 300 miles away. I know it's not DX DX but it's long distance and it was neat to talk to these guys who were in the northern part of chicago. I've also done alot of DXing on 2 meter repeaters when the bands open. talked on the St. Louis repeater, which I can hit at home with no problem and talked to as far away as oklahoma.

That's what you do best, hmmmm, dumbass Davies. Regina Wiseman isn't Roger's ex-wife, stupid, considering the county she lives in is over 200 miles from where Roger lived in Florida. If you knew anything, you'd at least try to get somebody in the same county he lived in, not just somebody who has the same last name. But you are just an incompetent fat fucking retard, aren't you?

In a brief (and I do mean brief) review of various laws that have been talked about lately in this group, I happened upon a debt collection policy of the FCC. It is interesting reading if you have any debts with the FCC. http://www.fcc.gov/debt_collection/#overview

And I quote from the page referenced above: "The rules provide that if you fail to pay debts owed to the FCC, the debts will be referred to the Department of Treasury for collection. Your failure to pay will be reported to credit reporting agencies, and you will be unable to obtain any licenses or other benefits from the FCC."

Remember the phrase "you will be unable to obtain any licenses or other benefits from the FCC."

But does a forfeiture order constitute a debt to the FCC? Under the right conditions, it sure does.

I quote the law from 47 U.S.C:

Section 503(b)

"If any person fails to pay an assessment of a forfeiture penalty determined under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, after it has become a final and unappealable order or after the appropriate court has entered final judgment in favor of the Commission, the Commission shall refer the matter to the Attorney General of the United States, who shall recover the amount assessed in any appropriate district court of the United States. In such action, the validity and appropriateness of the final order imposing the forfeiture penalty shall not be subject to review."

Section 402(C)

"Such appeal shall be taken by filing a notice of appeal with the court within thirty days from the date upon which public notice is given of the decision or order complained of."

It seems clear that the process here is that when a Forfeiture Order is issued you have 30 days to file an appeal or the order of the FCC becomes final ("final and unappealable order" as section 503 puts it). So if there is no appeal the Order becomes final by default 30 days after it is issued. Appeals must be presented in the proper form with enough detail to provide a good basis for the appeal, and they must be filed with the proper court. A judge then would review the appeal and could either agree to hear the appeal or simply deny the appeal at this point. The appeal process could take just a few days (if the filed appeal has no merrit) or years if it goes to trial. But remember that an appeal MUST be filed within 30 days to stop the Forfeiture Order from becoming final.

The most interesting thing that I found is how the FCC treats those who owe them money. IF one has a "final" order it is basically a debt owed to the FCC. This will impact any future or pending applications which are filed by anybody with such a final Forfeiture Order because of the "Red Light Rule" that deals with the FCC's debt collection processes and policy.

If you owe money to the them, FCC HAS to deny any license application including applications for renewal. They actually have no choice in the matter. The FCC's "Red Light Rule" prevents them from granting any applications for persons or organizations that are in debt to the FCC unless arrangements to pay the debt are made. This rule was adopted in 2004.

(And I quote from the policy):

"Under the rules adopted here, the Commission will not approve any applications or other authorizations until we determine that all delinquent debt to the Commission by entities using the same taxpayer identifying number (TIN) is paid or satisfactory arrangements are made for payment." So, if you have an unappealed Forfeiture Order that is 30 days old, it becomes "final" and the amount of the order is considered a debt owed to the FCC. If you further refuse to pay said Forfeiture after it's final any pending renewal application, or file one, it must be rejected by the FCC.

So.. If you are issued a Forfeiture Order on the 28th of March, you have until the 27th of April to file the appeal. After that point any pending renewal applications that you have filed are going to be denied by virtue of the "Red Light Rule". Assuming the FCC grants a grace period of say 30 more days for the appeal and takes an additional 30 days to process the administrative paper work, your licence renewal application will be denied some time in June.

Best of luck in the appeal, but your license is not going to be renewed no matter what you do...

What a load of horseshi+. Hams won't sit by and let all their radio gear become obsolete. Analog HF is here to stay for the next 50 years. Remember in ham radio things always always change s-l-o-w-l-y, much like maple syrup running at 40°F. Worldradio is encouraged to print and speculate on conjecture however this article is actually laughable. They may be some digital on VHF/UHF but HF? Not in my lifetime. Remember HF Packet Radio? The 300 baud technology that eventually fell FLAT ON IT'S FACE? AMTOR and old style 60WPM BAUDOT ran circles around packet radio. Heck I saw an AEA PK-232 at a hamfest recently going for $15 and it still remained un-sold at the end of the day. So much 4 digital ham radio. Pooofbltttttt!

Pasternak starts off with some false hypotheses and then tries to use logic to build upon them. Trouble is, when logic is applied to false hypotheses, the conclusions reached are meaningless.

In any case, I'm not worried about so-called digital communications becoming mandatory. Somehow Pasternak gets IBOC broadcasting confused with what other people would call digital broadcasting (as in digital TV), and then winds up at the very odd conclusion that the IBOC interference experience on the broadcast bands will lead to the enforcement of purely digital communications in the amateur bands.

Some broadcasters claim that IBOC is a disaster because it is a proprietary system, because it causes adjacent channel interference, and because sky wave propagation seriously degrades it. They suggest instead a system called "CAM-D," but the FCC isn't listening.

It's kind of like the BPL issue all over again. The FCC is simply doing what it wants to do in spite of highly qualified experts who disagree with it.

My view is that time will eventually embarrass the politicians at the FCC and prove that they were wrong all along in attempting to force controversial technical changes down an unwilling public's throat.

Before I'd ever purchase all new "digital" ham equipment, I'd simply go off the air for good. If thousands of other hams do that, then what happens to the "pool of skilled radio operators" that Pasternak babbles on about?

Nope. It's too absurd to ever happen. Pasternak must be living in La La Land.

ARRL threw principle out the window when they caved in to the demands of the Lambda Amateur Radio Club (LARC). It was a sad day for me indeed when I opened my beloved QST magazine and there on the pages were photos of queers on a Tropical DXpedition, and in living color no less. The ARRL wanted us to embrace a sick perverted lifestyle and be one big happy family. To me, it was the spark that signaled the death of a once proud organization, and it turned liberal.

Now the queers have all but taken over, they're like the military wing of the Democratic party, and always in your face. It's not even safe to take your kids to Easter egg hunts anymore. I know you're all going to disagree with me, but a man touching and sucking on another man's cock and fucking his ass just ain't right. The ARRL promoted this, now look what happened to our radio groups.

Well, your refusing to properly identify yourself with a real name, ISP account, and Radio License casts doubt on the credibility of your post.

I did not know that the Democratic Party had a 'MILITARY WING'. Who is the commanding officer? What is the source of that officer's legal commission? [PS: I am Republican]

Finally, your prejudices are showing!!!

To the FCC's credit, they tried to get rid of people like Wiseman and Morgan by making them retest. Maybe the FCC should retest everybody in Newington.

I, Roger Leo Wiseman, AB8MQ, being of unsound mind
have an offer to make to

Virginia.

I have a two bedroom house that is situated in a quiet and quaint part of West Virginia. My house has 800 square feet of floor space, has one bathroom
with hot and cold running water and a toilet that works most of the time.

I am looking for a like-minded roommate who can
use the second bedroom,
which measures eight by ten feet.

The kitchen has a gas stove and a microwave, both
of which worked at the time of this writing.

and can afford $400 per
pay cash up front at the first of each month.

I will not ask for, nor will I look into your criminal background since I have one of my own.

Also, don't worry about the local Police. They all know me so if you see a squad car parked down the block during the day, ignore them. The Chief often
stops by just to see how I am doing.

"Skirt Chaser": Monicker like that, and message above, suggests you are overcompensating for your own latent tendencies. Or perhaps you've been to close to your antenna while transmitting with a California Kilowatt.

"Our radio groups": What's your call, OM?

"Military wing of the Democratic party": You mean Hillary or who?

Oh, he has one, it's called living off the public dole which he has been doing for quite some time. After all, could you imagine working with him. You know he can't get along with anyone here so it is obvious that you wouldn't want to employ him. Think about what a loner he must be to hang on here daily even during work hours from say 7 to 5 or something like that. After all, how else could he actually be working for someone and posting at the same time. Plus, notice he uses an MSN account when doing so and it's not likely any decent sized business would be using an MSN account but rather have their own servers etc. See what I am saying is that he must be on the dole.

It's proof that coherence, clarity and communication are over rated.
'Freind' has made it to his twilight years without EVER having to resort to anything resembling grammar.

He is also as phoney as a three dollar bill...much like cuhulin's idiot

Interesting that she doesn't live in Hillsborough County any more. You lived in Hillsborough County which is part of the Tampa Bay metropolitan area. I know Florida very well Wussman and it must suck to be caught in your own lies. Not to mention that she admitted in the posting that she had went away to jail as well. She didnt say where she lived now except the stated place in Key West.

Interestingly she had a knowledge of the projects and where Woger worked as well. Sounds like Scheissman got busted again.

Hey Lardass, you were the one jamming on 20 meters and on the air unidentified. You were the one DFed. AS to the letter for retest, it's been established years ago in addition to not knowing what the fuck you are talking about, you can't read plain English. Any ham that was tested under the VE system can be retested. It's funny how you make such a big deal about it, when you can't even pass the test the FIRST time, much less twice and upgrade to the highest class license, while you are and always will be a no code technician, the training wheel ham license holder.

The very letter he received proves that alleged qrming wasn't even a factor in the retest.

CERTIFIED MAIL--RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

Mr. Roger L. Wiseman

610 Glen Haven Avenue

Glendale, WV 26038-1302

SUBJECT: Amateur Radio license KC8JBO

Dear Mr. Wiseman:

Pursuant to Section 97.519(d)(2) of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. Section 97.519(d)(2), the Commission has the authority to re-administer any examination element previously administered by Volunteer Examiners (VE's). The Commission may either administer the examination itself, or under the supervision of a Volunteer Examiner Coordinator (VEC) or VE designated by the Commission.

Accordingly, we are requiring you to re-take the General Class Amateur Examination, (Elements 2, 3(A) and 3(B)) under the supervision of an American Radio Relay League Volunteer Examiner Coordinator. This examination must be completed on or before September 11, 2000. The required code speed that you must demonstrate is 5 words per minute.

Please be prepared to verify your current address and to present a photo identification. Pursuant to Commission rules, your license will be cancelled if you do not appear for re-examination. You will be granted an Amateur Radio license consistent with the elements you pass upon re-examination.

Sincerely,

W. Riley Hollingsworth

Special Counsel, Amateur Radio

Enforcement Bureau

Nice admission, faggot. And you outed yourself, Davies.
You are gay, Lardass Davies, that's the ONLY reason you are still a VIRGIN at 32 years of age.

Wiseman isn't Jewish, fatboy. But your family name sure is:

http://www.houseofnames.com/coatofarms_details.asp?sId=&s=Davies Looks like it's Davies the Welsh Jew!

http://www.houseofnames.com/coatofarms_details.asp?sId=&s=Wiseman Seems it shows that Wiseman is of English and German heritage.
Unlike you, mongrel Davies.

Roger doesn't go to the Shipwreck Lounge, dumbass.
I heard that the well-known GD cocksucker Normy does, though.
Him and Joe Blair were caught sucking each other off in the restroom, sort of like you were in high school , Davies.

WORKFORCE TO BOTH MODERNIZE AND TRANSFORM. AS STATED IN REF A, IT IS CRITICAL TO SHAPE THE WORKFORCE BY DEVELOPING AND EMPLOYING SKILLS THAT

PROVIDE A COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE TO THE WARFIGHTER. IN SUPPORT OF OPERATIONALIZING INFORMATION OPERATIONS (IO) WE WILL CONTINUE TO EXPAND

THE NSG SKILL BASE IN IO FUNCTIONS, ESPECIALLY IN COMPUTER NETWORK OPERATIONS (CNO) AND ELECTRONIC WARFARE (EW). ALTHOUGH CONSIDERABLE DISCUSSIONS AND EFFORT HAVE FOCUSED ON MERGING OR CONVERTING CT RATINGS

TO MEET THE CNO MISSION REQUIREMENT, THIS HAS BEEN ABANDONED IN FAVOR OF ESTABLISHING CTN AS A NEW RATING. THERE ARE CT SAILORS DOING THE CNO MISSION TODAY. MANY OTHERS ARE READY TO MEET THE CHALLENGE TO GAIN THE

REQUIRED SKILLS. THEY WILL HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO APPLY TO A RATING WITH CNO FOCUSED COMPETENCY AND CAREER PROGRESSION. NSG STAFF, RATING EXPERTS, AND CT RATING COMMUNITY MANAGEMENT ARE WORKING IN PARTNERSHIP WITH SENIOR NAVY LEADERSHIP TO GAIN SECNAV APPROVAL TO ESTABLISH THE CTN RATING.
2. WE WILL EMPLOY OFFENSIVE AND DEFENSIVE COMPUTER NETWORK OPERATIONS

TOOLS AND TECHNIQUES IN SUPPORT OF THE IO WARFARE AREA. PROVIDE TECHNICAL EXPERTISE IN NETWORK-CENTRIC OPERATIONS, FOCUS ON DETECTING, PROTECTING, REACTING AND RESPONDING TO THREATS AGAINST NAVY NETWORKS; DEFEND AGAINST EXTERNAL AND INTERNAL THREATS THROUGH DEFENSE-IN-DEPTH, TECHNICAL AND NON-TECHNICAL METHODS TO INCLUDE: ATTACK SENSING AND WARNING (AS&W); PROVIDE LONG TERM CND TREND, PATTERN AND THREAT ANALYSIS; VULNERABILITY ASSESSMENTS, INCLUDING ACTIVE PENETRATION TESTING AND RED TEAMING, CND

TRAINING, AWARENESS AND CERTIFICATION PLANNING AND RISK MITIGATION PROCEDURES, PROVIDE INTELLIGENCE AND TARGET DEVELOPMENT IN THE EXECUTION OF OFFENSIVE ACTIONS DESIGNED TO NEUTRALIZE THREATS TO NAVY INFORMATION

SYSTEMS.
3. THE CTN WILL NEED TO POSSESS A COMBINATION OF TECHNICAL KNOWLEDGE AND ANALYSIS SKILLS. WHETHER OPERATING OFFENSIVELY OR DEFENSIVELY, THE

CTN WILL FUSE TOGETHER INFORMATION FROM VARIOUS SOURCES TO PROVIDE THE

SITUATIONAL AWARENESS REQUIRED TO PLAN AND EXECUTE INFORMATION OPERATIONS
(IO) ACTIONS/COUNTER-ACTIONS.
4. ONCE THE CTN RATING IS ESTABLISHED A MESSAGE WILL BE RELEASED REQUESTING INTERESTED/QUALIFIED CT/EWS TO SUBMIT CONVERSION REQUEST

PACKAGES. THE SOURCE RATINGS FOR CTN WILL INITIALLY BE LIMITED TO THE

CRYPTOLOGIC/ELECTRONIC WARFARE COMMUNITY. LONG TERM PLANS ARE FOR THE

CTN RATING TO BE A NORMALLY ACCESSED RATING, AS WELL AS OPEN TO ALL NAVY CONVERSION.
5. A TASK FORCE EXCEL (TFE) JOB TASK ANALYSIS (JTA) OF PERSONNEL PERFORMING THE COMPUTER NETWORK OPERATIONS (CNO) MISSION WAS CONDUCTED

WE HAVE BEGUN DEVELOPING AND POPULATING THE 5-VECTOR MODEL. THE GOAL COMPLETION IS MID 2003. AS WITH EACH OF THE CT RATINGS, I ENVISION
THAT RIGHT FROM "A" SCHOOL, GRADUATES WILL HAVE INDUSTRY-RECOGNIZED SKILLS AND CERTIFICATIONS. THE CTO/CTM O/M CORE AND BASIC DIGITAL NETWORK

INITIATIVES TO EXPAND THE BILLET BASE AND LOCATIONS.
7. COMMANDS ARE ENCOURAGED TO USE THE CTN WEBSITE LOCATED AT

I find it fascinating to see all the personal attacks against Skirt Chaser, but not one poster says his conclusions are wrong.

Reminds me of some years ago when Dan Quayle attacked Murphy Brown for portraying a decadent lifestyle. He got crap from all over the spectrum, but not one attacker said his conclusions were wrong either.

Food for thought.

First, the DoN needs to learn about lower case; next, they should drop the superfluous Morse code abbreviations (such as BT) from their official text messages. I know it's tradition, and I know the rationalizations they use for sticking to the WWII format, but it really does look like a protocol used by lamers.

And no hacker wants to hang out with lamers.

Your comments indicate that have an unusual interest in the homosexual lifestyle. By appearing to be virulently anti-homosexual you come across as trying too hard to convince us that you are heterosexual.
Possibly you need to convince yourself first that you don't have homosexual tendencies before trying so hard to convince others.

Really, it's ok if you are. Just accept yourself as you are and everything will be fine - eventually.

well you facts are in error

I said his conclusions were wrong

The ARRL had no real choice in allowing LARC to advertise the cloesets it had to a choice was a long and expensive legal battle that it would likely lose

as to the rest I refarined from comenting on the posters obvious sexaul issues becaus ethey were
A) obvious and
B) simple the run of a flase premises which by the GIGO meant they rest was garbage

Skirt Chaser,

So convinced of your position, you didn't post with a real name. One thing we all can agree on: The ARRL did not hide its political position.

I want to go on record as embracing the ARRL's move, a reason that I just may join after all these years. I guess I first need to identify myself as "normal" heterosexual, although sexual identity ought not be relevant to one's standing or reputation in life.

The terms of conduct you use are appalling, homphobic imaginationl. How can youi pre-suppose what two consenting adults do privately? Do we pre-suppose what heterosexuals do? Of course not, realizing sexuality is unique.

The only act that is obviuos becomes so by the birth of children, otherwise sexuality is a private matter. And on what basis do you connect children with homosexuality, which abuses pale in comparison to heterosexual abuses with children.

A compelling example, by no means alone, is the recent spate of female teacher abuses of male minors. To draw the example further, the reality of this teacher abuse by no means speaks for female teachers in general, any more than homosexuality equates to abuse of children.

Your post, to me, seems so rife with homophobia and prejudice that you seem mentally unbalanced. Of course, I could be wrong and I could be the unbalanced one. In any case, I wish you well and hope you will begin to feel the integrity of your words suffcient that you identify your posts by real name and call.

a good set of reasoning if one thinks the ARRL tok it out of principle instead calulation of the chances andcosts of a fight

By my count, he has 7 days left to appeal or this Forfeiture Order will be final invoking the Red Light Rule which will cause the rejection of the renewal application and the loss of his operating privileges.

The only part of the NAL that I've even heard an argument about in this forum is the broadcasting charge, and all the arguments used where dismissed by the FCC in the Forfeiture Order. The failure to answer their questions, causing interference, failure to ID, and lack of proper station control charges are by all accounts slam dunks for the FCC. There may be an appeal, but I'd bet it will be a short one.

I think the FCC is intentionally waiting for the Forfeiture Order to become final so they can reject the renewal application. It then becomes a no questions asked decision that is clearly the FCC following their procedures to the letter. It will side step a whole bunch of issues that K1MAN would love to try and use to muddy the water in court. What do they have to loose here? Nothing but time and a whole lot of trouble.

Think of it from their perspective. We wait until the fines become final then flush the renewal application due to the Red Light Rule if he refuses to pay. If he starts to talk about paying up you either ask for the $21k up front or you get an agreement from him that his renewal gets flushed (along with a other conditions) when he tries to get on the "easy checks" payment plan. In the unlikely event he comes up with the $21k to pay the fine the issue is closed, so you use the issue to reject the still pending application for renewal. Anyway you slice this the license is history. Why get wrapped up in a brawl about the renewal? Just be patient and do it the easy way.

The only thing K1MAN can do now is delay things, and even that may not be for very long.

I think the FCC is playing from the position of strength and we are but a few moves away from "Check and Mate" no matter what this guy does. There just remains some question about the number of moves before the game over the license is over, but it's going to be over with the FCC on top.

Then the real fun will begin... I guess they won't be able to fine him for not providing his call every 10 min.. He won't have one.

That the appeal would be a short lived is my opinion, to be sure.
(Wishful thinking perhaps? After all, due process does take time in our legal system.)

However, the up holding of the fine, or at least some of the fine seems to me to be a no brain-er. Assuming he argued successfully that he's not been "broadcasting" the rest of the charges are going to be very hard to argue using the 1st and 5th amendments and if the FCC successfully argues any of the points in court a fine will be then
"final" and unappealable.

For instance, how would one successfully argue that the station had a legal control operator in this case? There was obviously some automated or remote control of the station, yet it seems that at times nobody was actually monitoring what the station was transmitting. FCC knocks on the door during while the station is active on at least two occasions and nobody is home? Yet when questioned about how he was controlling his station he simply says that it was always legal? I can agree that he has the right to remain silent and not incriminate himself, but if that's what is going on here the FCC is obviously going to prove their point. If he really has a legal control point in his car or strapped to his belt, then it would be in his best interest to disclose this to the FCC when they ask or he's going to get fined for withholding the information. Either way it's an affirmed fine that you won't be able to wiggle out of in court.

There are other issues too that will be very difficult for him in court. Why do you think the FCC waned to know who was the control operator of the station on specific days and times? Think about that and read the rules in part 97 about control operators, you will see what I mean. If he says "I don't know" then they got him on failing to keep control of his station properly, if he says "I was" they get him on the same thing. IF he has somebody else there then the BOTH get in trouble when the rules got broken.

They got him in a corner, and unless he appeals in the next few days this dance is over because the fine will become final and his license renewal will be rejected by the Red Light Rule.

So.. If he chooses to wait until the government files suit to collect the fine he's going to loose his license before he sees the process server drive up his driveway. After all, the FCC cannot refer the case to collection until it's final, and that's part of the process that includes the Red Light Rule I'm talking about.

He has 30 days to appeal by law. They may give him some extra time to file the appeal, but if he doesn't do anything they will soon consider the fines final and turn the debt over to collections. This then means they have to reject his pending renewal as their debt collection process requires.

If I had to guess, I'd say he's going to do nothing and wait for the FCC to make the next move. They eventually will consider the FO final and start debt collections and reject the renewal application. This is what he wants because it seems to me he lives for the conflict and looks forward to the day when he operates without a license. After all that will ratchet up the pressure on the FCC and give more visibility to his cause. Nothing much will change, except that we will then be hearing about how his license was illegally not renewed and that he really does have a license despite what the FCC says.

This will continue until he either runs out of money to pay the electric bill because of the collection of the fines he will have racked up, or his equipment is confiscated by the FEDS at the request of the FCC.

lying as normal "dr" death I see but to answer your question the concention with rec.radio.cb is that the origainl poster posits that ARRL is responible for the near constand of Homosexaul bashing in Radio Newsgruops such CB and to another poster in the read Shortwave for that matter.

that the explanation is Bull not with standing is a on topic thread to extent it sparks a discussion of why do so many people in the Radio NG's choose to make homosexauly based attacks

as to the real reason why the radios NG has gotten into the gay bash state they have is someothing of mystery to me, since the ARRL obviously lacks such power

let us assume that K1MAN station has some form of remote control (indeed my staion is sometimes on the air with me tranmiting through while I am in another a state, and even once another country, thank to the miracle of the Net. I am not familier with any requirement right off that requires him to top be able to prove it was in use at any given monet selcted by the FCC coming nocking at his shack door, the burden would IMO (abet not a prolawyer) would be on the FCC to prove the case. K1MAN might be obliged to prove the senario I decrabed was within his stations techical ablities after which reasonable doubt and the 5th should cover him

In this event I would agree that K1MAN has been unwise

I am not sure the timing of the apeal is that critical (in many other cases filing with the court of Legal notice of apeal would by him time, at mimal cost)

I'm not Wiseman, or as you spell it "Wismen" , you braying jackass.
You never did get that GED, did you, Makrie? I doubt your claims of having a couple of college degrees is true, as well.

Marky is in denial about his illiteracy.
You don't have dyslexia, you are just a plain ignorant, illiterate, fat bastard.

Wrong and inadmissable. Where is the proof? You do realize you can't even look into adoption records without a court order, don't you?
Of course, you don't, you are a moron.

http://ent.163.com/special/00031S87/ssjs.html 大家有兴趣的去看看阿
2006百事世界挑战赛是由百事可乐组织的全球性足球挑战赛。除了中国，还有很多来自世界各地的足球强国参与这次比赛，包括举世公认的足球王国巴西、现代足球的发源地英国、孕育了世纪球王马拉多纳的阿根廷、拥有“忧郁王子”巴乔的意大利等。每个国家要从成千上万的候选人中选出两位16-20岁的选手代表自己的国家参赛，也许我们将看到下一个贝克汉姆或者是第二个小罗。他们要接受一个又一个地由专家们精心设计的挑战，决出最后胜负。最后的前三名将进入AC米兰的主场圣西罗球场进行点球大赛，冠军队还将获得高达10万美元的奖金。

Hey Morkie...guess what...

There's not a single thing you can say or send to them that would in any way, shape of form negatively impact my membership.

That's because I never post "AS A MEMBER" of CAP, nor do I use my grade, office, or services of CAP from which to post.

Hey MORON Wiseman. Did you ever think that you got retested because of your obnoxious on-air behavior? Or are you too stupid to understand that? They don't retest people who are obeying the rules. Of course, your such an illiterate wanker that you don't have the sense to understand that. What a rocket scientist. You were retested because of your behavior on the 20 meter amateur band. Not to mention your jamming of 75 meters. Hollingsworth doesn't retest people unless they have been a moron. Which is what you really are.

Be kind to Robeson. His behavior is his way of dealing with his own problems. He believes in projecting his troubles upon strangers, quite the quirky way of dealing and providing himself with some sort of mental therapy. He's a control freak and member of the Civil Air Patrol who acts like he does for reasons known only to himself. He is a man who dislikes compromise, his ego is easily bruised, and one only needs browse his warblings over the years for such an illustration of how this blemish of a Radio Amateur. Robeson is never wrong, don't you know that by now?

ï¿½ï¿½Jerry Oxendine told me Robeson was an officer in the CAP and Robeson has confirmed this himself. This by itself wouldn't be an issue, but the fact he feels it important enough to put it out there in public and couple it with such behavior unbecoming of one who holds such a position makes his hypocrisy fair game.
ï¿½ï¿½It's plain to see why this country is hated more each day around the world. With leaders like we have and officers like Oxendine and Robeson in charge of anyone or anything, who are out there setting examples like they do and spoiling the good image of such civil/military endeavors and entities, it's no wonder this great country is having its image tarnished. Robeson is the worst type of American. He wraps himself in the flag and attacks those with whom he disagrees as opposed to attacking the actual subject matter/topic. Another "semi-qualified licensed" hammie who has much to learn regarding communications. He was taught Fields Communications and basic introductories regarding such, but as exampled, is illiterate when it comes to Discipline in Communications, knows nothing of Approaches of Communications, Relations, Negotiations and a host of other academia related to his chosen radio hobby that he never bothered to learn.
He and Oxendine are much alike. Zero tolerance for any views but their own myopic concerns.

What's "lkike" Woger? Yes, you did live in Hillsbourogh county when attending USF. You have claimed to attend school at USF. Furthermore, if she wasn't your wife, then how do you know so much about her. Huh, rocket scientist. You certainly wouldnt know if she lived in Tampa or not. You claim she never lived in Hillsbourough County yet you also claim that she wasn't your wife. Interestingly, that you claim to have attended college at USF which is in Hillsbourough County in NE Tampa. What's "whiye" and "projectes" boy? Did you cum all over your keyboard because every day you are being outed just a little more? So if you didnt know her, you couldnt say that she lived in anywhere other than Hillsbourough county. The only way that you could have known her is that she was your wife. If you didnt know her, then you could not say that she never lived in Tampa.

Interestingly, she also claimed to know you from the projects. Well there sure arent many projects in the Keys. Plus, Monroe county is the location of one of the prisons in South Fla.

Wrong, stupid, I've never lived in Hillsborough county. But then, you never do get it right.

Roger Wiseman went to USF, Lardass. I'm not Roger Wiseman, you idiot.

Because the prison offender website you got her name off of has all her info, dumbass.

It's on her record, stupid. The fact is, you went to the FL Dept. of Corrections website and typed in "Wiseman" under the offender name search and lo and behold you desperately tried to make Regina Wiseman Roger's ex-wife. Trouble is, you already said in a previous post a while back that some woman named Pam Wiseman in Michigan was Roger's ex-wife. You are so fucking stupid.

She wasn't Roger's wife, idiot. She liv ed in Monroe County, which is 200 miles or more away from the Tampa Bay area. Get a fucking map and you'll see, dumbass Lardass.

Typical Davies post, much like this useless life, stealing from others because he's too fucking stupid to come up with anything on his own.

BWHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

BILLY, DON'T BE A ZERO

Vocal: Bo Donaldson & The Heywoods

[Words and Music by Mitch Murray and Peter Robin Callander]

The gay pride band came down along Main Street
The Village People fell in behind
I looked across and there I saw Billy Smith Waiting to go and join the line
And with her head upon his shoulder
Mary, his old and hideous she-male mommy
>From where I stood, I saw she was cryin'
And through her tears I heard her say

"Billy, don't be a zero, don't be a fool all your life"
"Billy, don't be a zero, you can go back to school at night"
And as he started to go she said "Billy, keep your your head back as you blo-o-ow"
"Billy, don't be a zero, don't forget we can give 'em a two for one you know"

The whining faggots were trapped in a alley
The gay orgy raging all around Dick Sergeant cried "We've got to hang on, boys"
"We got to hold this piece a'ground"
"I need a volunteer to ride me"
"And bring us back some extra men"
And Billy Smith's hand was up in a moment
Forgettin' all the words she said

Everybody said
"Billy, don't be a zero, don't be a fool all your life"
"Billy, don't be a hero, you can go back to school at night"
And as he started to go she said "Billy, keep your head back as you blo-o-ow"
"Billy, don't be a hero, don't forget we can give 'em a two for one you know"

I heard his she-male mommy got a letter
That told how Billy swallowed that day
The letter said that he was a zero
She should be proud he swallowed that way
I heard she threw that letter away

[military drums and fifes to end]

Tunder didn't even get out of his rusted truck. He hid behind his cell phone. Heil and his equally fatassed ex-whore wife fucked up, because Roger wasn't home, but somebody was and that person didn't know them so they didn't open the door. No matter how Heil wants to spin and lie, he can't do anything but whine about screwing up. I hear that Roger's local polkice got a criminal complaint after that incident, though.

Wiseman's parents were Southern Baptist, since when did the Protestants become part of Judaism? But the house of names website clearly shows that Davies is a Jewish name.

You sure don't.

Pursuant to Section 97.519(d)(2) of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R.
Section 97.519(d)(2), the Commission has the authority to re-administer any examination element previously administered by Volunteer Examiners (VE's). The Commission may either administer the examination itself, or under the supervision of a Volunteer Examiner Coordinator (VEC) or VE designated by the Commission.

Which means you could have to retake that no code training wheel license again, fatty, but we all know you wouldn't pass it. How great for amateur radio would that be.

>I am not sure the timing of the apeal is that critical (in many other >cases filing with the court of Legal notice of apeal would by him time, >at mimal cost)

You know, I wasn't either until I started reading about this "Red Light Rule" and portions of 47 U.S.C. that it refernced. I also started looking at the NAL to FO process that is outlined there too. When I found sections 402 and 503 that I quoted in a previous post in this thread the reasons for the 30 days to pay an a lot of what the FCC was saying in the NAL and FO started to make more sense. They are indeed following the legal process to the letter.

When you read section 503 it says (in part) "If any person fails to pay an assessment of a forfeiture penalty determined under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, after it has become a final and unappealable order or after the appropriate court has entered final judgment in favor of the Commission..." Indeed the Forfeiture Order was issued using subparagraph (A) which you can read for yourself if you want. However, this means that here are two paths that a fine like this takes on it's way to being "final" 1. it becomes final and unappealable, and 2. A court makes a judgment in favor of the commission. So, in the absence of an apeal to drive the case to a court for a decision, how does a Forfeiture Order become "final and unappealable"?

I did a bit more digging in 47 U.S.C and I found section 402 which deals with the appeals process. It specifies a 30 day window for appeals of orders issued by the FCC. (It also specifies the necessary content and format of an appeal.) This is what leads me to think that the process here is 30 days with no appeal means the order is final.

On the control operator thing. I don't claim to fully understand this issue of automatic control. Quite frankly I don't have any equipment capable of such operation so it is not an issue I've had to deal with. However, if you have a station that comes up and starts transmitting automaticlly at a specific time of day say based upon a timer device you purchased at Radio Shack, and said station started transmitting a pre-recorded audio message on a ham frequency would that be legal? I don't thnk so... However, because Baxter wants to think he's running a real bulliten service under part 97 (with a published schedule 6 months in advance and such) he has to stick with the published schedule during the times he's not able to be there to throw the switches himself. My theory is that he simply created some means of turing on the station and playing some recorded materials at the right times each day.

This lead to the "willful" interferance charges because the timer didn't have any way to listen before the transmitter was keyed and the tape started to roll, then as he "forgot" the content rules and that he needed to ID every 10 min on the tapes we get the other violations. The rest of the NAL was his refusal to tell the FCC all the details here and sink his own boat.

No, I don't think he had a valid control operator a lot of the time. Nobody was responsible for monitoring the station during operation and that violates part 97 rules.

I don't do that either

I have never said your wife is a man

why do you insits witout the slightest reason that my wife is man

the reason is obvious becuase you can't tell the truth

Ye I will and I will tell the truth when dealing wqith people you dislike you cdo only the latter

Oh and one more thing, just so I'm sure it's clear what I'm saying.

There is a difference between the court activity that would "appeal" this order and the court activity that would be used to collect the fine. They would likely be in different courts at different times.

IF Baxter wants to argue the fine points of Part 97 interpretation and save his license, he'd better do it as an appeal of the Forfeiture Order that is started in the 30 day window. If he waits for the debt collection process to get his arguments before a court it will be too late for him to keep his license and the lack of appeal to the Forfeiture Order will be seen as a positive for the FCC. ("Hey, he didn't object to the order and appeal when he could. Why should we allow him to debate it now? This is the wrong forum for this debate.")

At the debt collection trial the FCC (Actually the DOJ at this point) may manage to side step all of the rule violation debates by simply saying that Baxter has already refused to avail himself of the proper appeal process so his arguments are not valid in the debt collection phase. I suppose that in an effort to be totally fair the judge over the debt collection case will allow a limited debate of the facts related to the Forfeiture Order but I doubt it will be allowed to go on very long and I'm sure the judge will be keeping the arguments under control.

Ever been to traffic court? Let's say you get a ticket for running a red light and you and the officer stand before the judge. The Officer says you did it, you say you didn't. Who is the judge going to believe? It won't be you. the Judge will patiently listen to all you have to say that is even remotely relevant, and render a judgment against you. That is of course if you don't come up with some hard verifiable evidence to show what the Officer is saying is not true.

He has no hard evidence so Baxter will end up the same way.

I suppose it's possible that I'm not reading everything I need to, but I've been trying to follow the foot notes in the NAL and FO. (Not to mention the FCC's web site links to their rules.)

> liek I don't know and doubt a pro in feild would know but I would

We agree there, an appeal now will at least delay the whole process here, no matter how valid it turns out to be. I suppose what you suggest would at least force the FCC down the appeal path because they would then have to get an independent judgement on the appeal, no matter how lame it ends up being. That would surely delay the order getting to the "final" state.

> >No, I don't think he had a valid control operator a lot of the time.

Well, the imposition of a fine for a rules violation has an appeal process. If he fails to defend himself successfully in the appeal (either by trying and not being able to prevail, or by not trying at all) the FCC is effectively writing him a traffic ticket with a $21k fine.

The FCC has two witnesses that he was not at the station on two separate days when they say he engaged in "broadcasting", willful interference and not properly doing station ID every 10 min. They where physically at his station knocking on the door,.seeking to lawfully inspect the station and nobody was home. What can he say?

They got two witnesses who where there when he wasn't. One can only assume that they had a receiver monitoring the transmissions and a tape recorder too, but it doesn't matter.

Not really from my perspective. Baxter may claim that his rights are being violated and try to argue that the FCC is not following a valid process, but they are. He simply does not understand where his rights have been protected and how he needs to respond to get the full benefit of his rights. He needs a good lawyer. (But we've agreed on that before I think.)

In reality the process of what is going on here is very simple. There are just two separate processes that are concurrently running. Baxter would want to combine the two and point to the illogical process of it all, but it's just a result of his own misunderstanding of the law.

On it's face what you say seems to be reasonable, but the type of argument you are describing is the NAL response from Baxter (now history) and the possible appeal of the FO. Now I'm no fan of lawyers, but they do have their purpose. Baxter needs to stop trying this one man show and get a lawyer because he is letting his "due process rights" slip though his fingers. Ignorance of the right process is not a valid argument. You got to work the process by the rules or you loose, that's not unfair.

The proper forum to argue the rules violation was his response to the NAL and now the appeal of the FO. This is where the "due process" that protects his rights comes into play. I note that his request for a hearing in front of the FCC, which was denied as being improper, is not his "right" in this case. However, a hearing in front of a judge IS his right, but he must ask for this hearing in the time allowed. He can protect his rights, but he has to protect them in the right forum.

(You wouldn't go to congress to argue a speeding ticket would you?)

I've not ever met him or talked to him personally to my knowledge either. I have mostly read the FCC's documentation and K1MAN's own web site. I've seen a few other sites that are obviously personal attacks, but some of them do have interesting facts and audio clips purported to be off the air recordings.

All in all, I don't think the FCC is picking on him or railroading him on this. He may think that they are upset about being sued or about his obvious disrespect for their legal staff but it's just not that way. I seriously doubt they find him anything but amusing down at the FCC. At best he's a refreshing change of pace from issuing all the "your tower lights are not working" fines. That's not to say they are just playing with him, by no means. They are just doing their process to the letter knowing that eventually all the bluster won't amount to much.

assuming K1MAN has the abilty to be the control operator at his station

Honestly I thinkk the FFC also has a fair amount of "bluster " tot it stand (opinion you note) and so this process has moved along very in very jerky fashion and I honestly doubt, no I am certain we have not heard the last from K1MAN, and will not for some time to come (the last we hear may be his aresst at some point down the line but I still think we have years of this to come not weeks or days

Well Lloyd what they know and you dont i guess is that TTY doesnt have lower case. Even though pc's are in use now, their message formatting and text style is teletype style. Baudot code and all. Join up, it might do you some good. I happen to have worked 20 years in this exact field.

I happen to have worked for the Navy for more than 20 years too (Naval Research Laboratory). And TTYs have had lower case capabilities since the early 60's. Baudot died in the 70's and was replaced by ASCII (ANSI standard). The Navy kept on truckin' with their old, outmoded nonsense and used ASCII over satellite links to keep on emulating the ancient WWII format. The Navy hasn't used real Baudot for years and years. Their machines aren't even capable of it any more.

Back to the drawing board, devoman1999. You're typing at someone who has been there. I'm wondering if you're not just blowing smoke.

indeed nothing ilegal in a ham having equipment able to tranmit outside the ham bands I have some myself used to drive tranverters or the fact I own gear able to tranmit on on 220-222 Mhz(an older moble for the band

And since I am leaving work and may or may not get to check the posts,
I have included the following info regarding message composition. Ref
NTP3

Pay attention to the part where it says: "ALL CAPS"

It may or may not be PC in todays world but it is fact!

Naval messages are prepared in accordance with the Naval Telecommunications Procedures User's Manual, NTP 3. NTP 3 provides specific guidance on the preparation and transmission of naval messages. Changes to message preparation procedures occur frequently, so be sure to use the latest revision to the NTP 3. If in doubt about message preparation procedures, check with your local communications office. The Message Text Format (MTF) Editor provides you with automated assistance for drafting GENADMIN messages.

MTF Editor software is menu driven and allows you to draft a formatted message by using a fill-in-the-blank template. Some fields on the template are mandatory, and other fields are optional. You should refer to the NTP 3 whenever you are unsure if a field is mandatory or optional. The following are general guidelines to use when you draft a GENADMIN message: Allowable characters include A through Z (all capitalized), numerals 0 through 9, blank spaces, and some special characters. The allowable special characters are quotation marks (" "), periods (.), commas (,), parentheses ( ), question marks (?), hyphens and dashes (-), and, in some cases, slants (-/-). Don't use other special characters because they are not available on Navy teletypewriter keyboards and will cause formatting errors. Limit abbreviations within the text of messages to those meanings that are self-evident, unequivocal, and easily recognized. In doubtful cases, always let clarity take precedence over brevity. Use the mandatory sets (MSGID, SUBJ, and RMKS) on all GENADMIN messages. Use optional sets (REF, NARR, and so forth) as 2-16

How funny it is that Woger tells someone to get a spell checker when he himself has not done the same.
Examples of his "intellect" are below and these actual misspellings are just the tip of the Wiseman dictionary.
Who you calling clueless, Woger????

"exaggerarte" Good one.

"eteranl" As in forever?

"ionly" Ions? Lonely? Who knows?

"expossed" Still no spell check.

"workibg" As in working?

"assulted" Darned typos!

"Georgaphy." Georgia on his mind?

"remibndded" It is hard to talk with your mouth full.

"corrpuption" Is that a dog?

"molsetred" Only 2Test knows.

"Whinyng". What?

"Plagairizing". Geesh

"emnpty" The inside of Roger's head.

"rloer" Not sure what Roger means here.

"lilusp" Woger meant to thay lithp.

"poat" Post?

"publich" Public?

"ashamerd"

"agasin". Play it agasin, Sam.

"woamn"

"doens't" Dagnabbit, Timmy.

"hyurt"

"chcienshit" You figure this one out.

"imginary" Hey, Rog. Another typo?

"asck" Sack or ask?

"Ultimte" Hooked on Phonics?

"greade" First or Second?

"attentiopn" Hooked on phonics, are we?

"copuple" Damn. Lloyd moved my keys around again.

"licvense" What Riley makes you retest for.

"havfe" Half? Halve? Have? Who knows.

"Baout" Bout? About?

"unsubstantiateed" It gets better.

"pompousity" Oops! Darn that keyboard, anyway!

"suergery" That is Devry for ya.

"aditting" Darn those typos!

"abckpedals" His greasy hair got in his eyes again

"shreeched" Wasn't he the guy in a sit com? Screech?

"stuid" Pot calling the kettle black?

"heared" That's West Virginia for heard.

"assuslted" Rog just makes em' up as he goes along.

"experieince" Oh, DUH!

"abouve" Is this a French word?

"Cosast" Some place by a body of water?

"mebership", Just a typo, right?

Woger, Mark....
You two are a classic example of a waste of human skin.
Your one-liners are lame and of no merit.
Woger...you live in that little hovel, hide behind closed blinds and castigate others while you live as a Hermit. Your only bravado comes from your keyboard. You are a spineless coward.

And, Mark? Your lack of intellect is plainly obvious. Have you no life but to respond over and over with "get help"? Surely your third grade teacher taught you better, or did she?
Woger's comment, "Get your head out of your ass, Marky" has merit, but this door swings both ways. You, Woger, should get your head out of your ass, too.

As is typical of every group Wiseman visits, he has turned this group into his own, personal little sewer. Where Wiseman goes, so goes unadulterated filth. No matter where Woger rears his ugly, unwashed head, the detritus is sure to follow.
So, Woger, while Mark is a classic example of stupidity you remain a much reviled and unredeemable chunk of sub human waste.
At least Mark has friends, Woger. Mark can go forth in the world and interact with same. You, however, hide behind closed blinds and have no friends.
Score: One for Mark.
Score: Zero for Woger

6676. DOWN with LOLICONS (pedophiles in Japanese)!

There has been significant public outcry in Japan following the kidnapping and murder of an elementary school girl in Nara, Japan and the arrest of a suspected lolicon for the crimes.

CASPAR, a Japanese non-profit-organization founded in 1989, is campaigning for regulation regarding the depiction of of minors in pornographic magazines and adult video games. Caspar states that it has been collecting sample material for several years.

Caspar founder Kondo Mitsue states, "For 5 or 6 years we have been collecting material, and the so called bishoujo adult anime magazines and bishoujo adult anime simulation games are terrible. Grown men manipulate childlike little girls, themes of turning them into slaves to have one's own sexual desires fulfilled being very common. "

According to Kondo the characters of these games and magazines are often clearly meant to be elementary aged school-children.

Producers of the lolicon and bishoujo material often argue that the Japanese constitution guarantees their freedom of expression in this matter and that laws restricting these materials would be unconstitutional. Kondo however counters this stating that "The utmost priority of the constitution is to guarantee fundamental human rights. I believe the freedom of expression does not allow for the depiction of little girls being violently raped, depriving them of their basic human rights."

She states that there is no country in the world that pays as little attention to Child Pornography as Japan.

CASPAR has collected 7,000 signatures on a petition to have the Japanese legal code revised in respect to virtual child pornography. In addition, 16 member of the Diet and several members of congress have pledged to support such measures.

Hmmm.. About the automated station vrs remote controlled station.

The configuration you describe for your station seems legal to me. There obviously is no rule that says that you have to be able to actually touch the transmitter or anything. My understanding is that you simply must be monitoring and controlling the station in real time unless the station qualifies for automatic control. I don't believe that a bulletin transmission on HF under part 97 does not qualify for being automatically controlled.

Specifically the FCC sites an example of this when on December 19, 2004 the station automation apparently failed, and when finally went off the air did not properly ID. The apparent conclusions drawn is that Baxter did not have the proper control of his station at this time. It's possible that he was exercising proper control but had a technical problem or equipment malfunction, but in order to show that he would have to explain the details of his station and show how he maintains proper control. He has declined to provide details.

>From his own descriptions of the "control method", it seems that he can stop the station's operation from any phone. I don't think that being able to turn it off qualifies as proper control. The FCC asked for details about the method he uses to control his station, attempted to inspect this station but have been unable to establish that his method of "control" meets the requirements of Part 97.

My theory is that what he has, (or had) in the way of automation is the equivalent of a timer that would start his station up to transmit his "bulletin" at the published time. Baxter simply loads the audio programming into some play back device (I assume it is a computer with a sound card, given the descriptions of certain failure modes), set's the timer to transmit at the specified time and heads to town in his car. I would assume he carries a receiver so he can "monitor" his station and turn it off should he detect a malfunction. However, this type of control is really "automatic" control, which is not allowed on HF phone.

I dare say your remote station control is a whole lot less "automatic" and very interactive and qualifies as acceptable, though it is a bit risky. Should your station misbehave while under this remote control, or start transmission while you are not actively monitoring it you risk having to answer the FCC's questions. However, if you show that you where having a technical malfunction in the interactive remote control of your station, the FCC would be very likely to drop the matter if you are open about your control method and what went wrong. (Assuming the design of your station is attempting to do the right thing according to the rules in part 97.)

The problem here is that even broadcasters on the AM and FM bands cannot legally do what I think Baxter did. They are required to have a "Control operator" too and they are specifically not allowed to be "automatically controlled". Their programming may be pre-recorded and automated, but they have to have somebody who is monitoring the equipment's operation and can exercise control over it (say shut it off in case of a malfunction). A guy with a portable FM receiver and a cell phone does not qualify as a control operator in this case. Baxter has apparently worked in a radio station, he should know this.

We understand, Todd, why you are the way you are. You were abused as a child and all the neighborhood kids picked on you because you were "slow". Still, Todd, that doesn't excuse your sick fantasy of wanting to have sex with children. No wonder your parents keep you locked in the basement. Floating in the bowl Makes me feel so good Awakens my soul
As if it could Never do I flush
A present for the next patron
Knowing what awaits, gives me quite a rush
For I am a fair matron

But I have no luck
And that's no lie
Everything goes against my grain
For me nothing works Life is just a drain Behind every door sorrow lurks
Another day and more doom
A planet of jerks
Bring plenty of gloom
My world is grey
Life is a heavy stone to carry
If I believed in God I would pray

6683. The ARRL comment on RM-8926

THE ARRL COMMENTS ON RM-8926 THAT'S NOTEWORTHLY

Frederick Maia in 1995 sent a purposal to the the FCC (RM-8926) to put information bulletins above 30 MHz. This is a footnote from the ARRL comment, and worth a read

"Maia criticizes the inherent infeasibility of information bulletin and regular scheduled code practice from W1AW to "listen before transmitting". The League believes the regularly published, widely disseminated schedule of the W1AW bulletins and code practice, the limited duration of each, and the advance warning transmissions are sufficient to address that concern. However, it should also be noted that such a capability, even if feasible, is not particularly practical, given the dynamic propagation characteristics in the amateur MF and HF bands. For W1AW operator (or any amateur radio operator) to listen in New England before transmitting is not a guarantee against interference to other amateur stations. If W1AW is in the skip zone of a station transmitting, W1AW will not hear the transmitted signal. That does not mean, however, that the intended receiving station is in the skip zone of W1AW. Nor are electronic circuits to determine frequency activity successful at HF. One reason is the noise level varies constantly by both types and amplitude. It is difficult, therefore, to discern signal from noise in these bands by use of a squelch circuit. The problem is further complicated by the fact that HF frequencies are not channelized, and receiver bandwidths vary from amateur station to amateur station. These matters, however, are no more a problem for one-way information bulletins from W1AW then they are for any amateur station engaged in two-way communication, and do not offer any support for the allegation that HF bulletins, voice, cw, or data, are somehow improper on the HF bands."

Certainly not because the equipment is using Baudot or can't support lower case. It's in caps because the Navy chooses to do things that way; not because it has to.

You asserted that TTY equipment can't do lower case, and I replied that isn't true. As a matter of fact, standard Navy messages are often produced with special software which runs on ordinary desktop PCs running Windows. The standard character code set for Windows is not Baudot. It is typically ASCII or some ISO superset of ASCII such as UTF-8.

Secretaries are typically selected to be trained in using the message software, as well as in the somewhat arcane rules for constructing Navy standard messages. Substantial costs are incurred for training, software maintenance, and man hours in order to support the use of those messages. The content or format of the messages themselves is irrelevant to this thread, because it is the use of monocase sprinkled with Morse code abbreviations which was originally at issue.

I maintain that it's a throwback to an earlier era and based mostly upon tradition. A Navy which brags about how modern it is really ought to do away with those things and replace them with something more 21st century. It would probably save the taxpayers some money too.

Court of Appeals

FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

Argued October 31, 2005 Decided March 27, 2006

No. 05-1224

Manifest Broadcast Company, Appellant

v.

Federal Communications Commission, Appellee

Consolidated with No. 05-1225

Appeals from Orders of the Federal Communications Commission

Carter G. Phillips argued the cause for appellant, with whom Mark D. Schneider, Katherine L. Adams, Gary D. Mitchell, and Charles J. Sennet were on the briefs.

David P. Archambault, Associate General Counsel, Federal Communications Commission, argued the cause for appellee, with whom Joseph M. McLeonard, General Counsel at the time the brief was filed, and E. Samson Peck, Jr., Counsel, were on the brief.

John F. Sturm, Richard E. Wiley, James R. Bayes, James J. Popham, Henry L. Baumann, and Jack N. Goodman were on the brief for amici curiae Association of Local Television Stations, Inc., et al.

Before: Ginsburg, Rogers, and Garland, Circuit Judges.

Opinion for the Court filed by Circuit Judge Garland.

Garland, Circuit Judge: Appellant challenges the Federal Communication Commission's refusal to grant it a license renewal, or at least a temporary waiver pending the outcome of future rulemaking, of its red light rule. The Commission's order is denied. Manifest's petition for review in No. 05-1225 is affirmed, and the portion of its appeal for reconsideration in 1225 is affirmed. The Commission is Ordered to review and amend its debt collection procedures.

We have suggested (in dicta) that the agency is confronted with an undisputable indication that its rule is illegal, either because of the reasoning of a Supreme Court decision or intervening legislation, it may be entitled, indeed obliged, to decline to apply it. American Tel. & Tel. Co. v. FCC (AT&T), 978 F.2d 727, 733 (D.C. Cir. 2004).(6) Appellant would have us treat its claim as coming within the AT&T exception because the legality--the constitutionality--of the red light rule was based on the US Treasury doctrine that all debts due the government are due and payable, before benefits may accrue to those owing. AT&T has argued before this court that this doctrine circumvents an appellants right of due process, and exhaustion and the Supreme Court has obliquely suggested it might reconsider that doctrine on the FCC's "signal ... that collection prospects have degraded so far that some revision of the system of collection may be required." FCC v. League of Broadcast Affiliates, 432 U.S. 366, 377 n.11 (2004). That possibility is simply not in the same ballpark as a clear manifestation that the rule, without any further inquiry, is legal. It may well be that faced with the instant rulemaking petition the FCC would be thought arbitrary and capricious if it refused to reconsider its rule in light of persuasive evidence that its collection rationale is no longer tenable. See American Speech Protection Ass'n v. Fielding, 811 F.2d 1 (D.C. Cir. 2004); WHT, Inc. v. FCC, 654 F.2d 803 (D.C. Cir. 2004); Heller v. FCC, 608 F.2d 954 (D.C. Cir. 2004) (per curiam).(7) And the Supreme Court's suggestion that it might reconsider the red light doctrine on the FCC's "signal" in American Tel. & Tel. Co. imposes an implicit obligation on the Commission. Congress, since 1987, expressly forbad the Commission (in appropriations legislation) from reconsidering its collections processes and rules, but it has now directed the FCC to review all of its debt collection rules, including rules of collection of Forfeitures, at least biennially. See Telecommunications Act of 1996, Pub. L. No 104-104, 202(h), 110 Stat. 56, 111-12 (1996). Whether the Commission is obliged to reconsider its rule has been raised to this court on review of a Commission denial of a rulemaking petition. Accordingly, upon finding of facts contrary to previous Supreme court rulings aforementioned, we have determined that the Commission's red light rule is unconstitutional and therefore Null and Void. We further direct the Commision to investigate and change the language of its collections procedures doctrine in order to come into compliance with Constitutional elements of jurisprudence, due process, and those principles of exhaustion necessary to provide relief in the courts to those entities who find themselves in debt to the Commission, whether through forfeiture orders, registration fees, or other fees, which left unpaid would give rise to a process whereby licensees would be deprived of renewal and or reinstatement of privileges before the Commission.

So Ordered.

N9OGL, fellow hams,

This is a remarkable case but it doesn't support your title in the least. The red light rule connects with Baxter's license renewal. Before the decision, presumably if he didn't pay the FO, the red light rule on his license renewal would kick in and he'd be effectively bounced.

This case is significant, no doubt. While the NAL and FO remain unaffected, the red light rule is void, meaning until the FCC comes up with a viable collection scheme through the rule making process, licensee K1MAN remains by the skin of his teeth.

Have you ever listened to Sherin holding forth on 20 meters? There is no "fu*king" with him because he keys down at ten in the morning and doesn't let up until the sun sets (or his power supply overheats). He, like Dumbass Donnie, simply does not know when to quit. If it were possible, Sherin would time out this simplex frequency, though he accomplishes the same by droning on and on while driving other Hams off. It has always amazed me that anybody would talk to either of these clowns for more than five minutes. What do they have to offer?
Sherin preaches, Donnie complains. Sherin claims to have a "melodic voice" while Donnie whines about Mexicans undercutting his landscape business prices.
And did you know that Sherin is NOT a real preacher as he posits? He is not ordained, but self-proclaimed.
Heck, by Sherin's standards I could proclaim myself to be anything that strikes my fancy should the mood so strike me. It works for him.
Maybe I can proclaim myself to be the Grand PooBah, Most Divine Leader of the Super Heterodyne Intellectual Types (SHIT).
Heck, if Sherin can claim to be a preacher I can likewise claim to be a SHIT, can I not?
Or is it the other way around????

THE MASTER PLAN OF THE ILLUMINATED ROTHSCHILDS:
Ron Patton interviews
Marion Knox

(caution! Extreme kooks ahead -)

Marion Knox is a farmer, Gospel singer, and counselor from Lebanon, Oregon. For several years, he has been helping set people free from the affects of ritual abuse and mind control. Although some may think of his methodology as unorthodox, it appears to be effective in eliminating highly-structured dissociation in many of the people he's worked with. While tediously assisting and supporting these survivors, Marion has uncovered startling information concerning the inner-workings of the Illuminati, the Rothschilds, and a possible end-times scenario. His conclusions are not only based upon what his clients are uniformly conveying, but also through Biblical and historical research. Mr. Knox would like to emphasize that some of his opinions are speculation or conjecture and need to be objectively verified and validated by independent sources.

Ron Patton: How did you get into counseling survivors of SRA (Satanic Ritual Abuse) and mind control?

Marion Knox: To begin with, my first experience with anything dealing with the occult was through a friend of mine who thought his house was haunted. So I volunteered. While trying to figure out what was going on, a woman living in the house felt she was possessed. We went through a deliverance session with her and she eventually became a Christian.
After that, I worked with people who had common sexual abuse. It wasn't until several years later, in 1993, I started counselling on a regular basis those who were ritually abused. So as far as the Satanic stuff goes, I first worked with three women who had multiple personalities, put in several hundred hours with each of these victims and as a result, began to understand the belief system and motives of the perpetrators.

RP: So what did you basically learn about the perpetrators belief system and motives?

MK: Since I already had a pretty good understanding of the Bible, it gave me part of the picture. But what I learned from other sources and what the survivors were telling me help put it together more clearly. Basically, Satan's system is built on the mirror image principle to copy the kingdom of God. The perpetrator's goal is to gain power. They believe that the devil has the most power, and the most powerful component in the rituals is the blood sacrifices in blasphemy of Christ's atonement. Another very important component is the act of sodomy which is the opposite of the "new birth" we have in Christ. The ritual abuse system is normally built around a three year old child, because this usually is the optimal time to create dissociation or MPD. This system is actually a mirror image or reflection of what appears to be a shattering of the core personality. To illustrate it better, let's say you stand between two mirrors and look down the corridor. You can then see yourself in multiple representations to infinity.

RP: Can you elaborate further on how the ritual abuse system is formed and how it works?

MK: Well, as I began to work with more survivors, I gathered more details and was able to kind of form a victim's profile. So as I mentioned before, they take a child at approximately three years of age and make the child fast for several days, force the child to witness human sacrifices, and to participate in a cannibalistic communion service. In some instances, they physically abuse the child and then place he or she in a cage or coffin to further the trauma. The child is sometimes drowned in a baptismal ceremony and brought back to life. In the process of all this blasphemy, the child's mind is reversed or shattered into multiplicity. The act of sodomy is also performed to open up the victim's "third eye" which is suppose to enhance psychic ability. During this vial act, a demonic system called, "Legion" is installed. In the King James Bible, Legion is refered to as an, "unclean spirit". This is systematically done to have complete control over the child, like creating a programmed robot.

RP: How is your therapeutic approach different then others in the area of "deprogramming"?

MK: Well, the key to being healed is the blood atonement of the Lord Jesus Christ. I know alot of survivors and therapists have a hard time with this because they might have a distorted view of Christianity, but what we are dealing with is in the spiritual realm; it's a spiritual battle between Satan, who wants to steal, kill and destroy as many lives as he possibly can, and, The Lord Jesus Christ, who wants to save and bring healing to the afflicted. I may not have all the details figured out, but I have seen many survivors come to freedom.
You see, the integration route can produce containment, whereas I get to the core of the problem and knock-out the whole MPD system by exposing the lies and secrets with truth and casting the high demons out into the pit. Before I get into the actual deliverance, I listen to their story, take note of their symptoms, and ask a lot of questions. Once it's accurately determined they are ritual abuse victims, I start to investigate deeper by testing the subconscious mind; by the way, I do it without the use of hypnosis.

Once I locate the highest demon, called the "Strongman", I attempt to cast it out along with Legion.. In conjunction with the deliverance, we will sometimes have a Christian communion service but we try not follow a ritualistic pattern too much. After the deliverance, there needs to be intensified Christian support that should include, prayer, friendship, understanding, teaching, counsel, and accountability. The person needs to do whatever it takes to stay away from any relationships and associations that gets in the way of the healing process. I guess it seems too simple for some therapists to understand or comprehend because I have people come to me who have been through conventional psychiatric therapy for years yet I am able to get many of them free, anywhere from a few hours to a couple of days...
Let me give you an example of what occurred with one of the first survivors I was able to help. She was a twin who grew up in Great Falls, Montana and was programmed by Josef Mengele, who she remembered as "Dr. Mingles". Anyway, the unique feature about her, that I never heard about from anyone else until then, was her mind was programmed that someday her MPD would be reversed so she could be used as a ruler over many covens within the Illuminati. So, while working with her I discovered that one of her personalities was programmed that if we would give her a normal Christian communion service, her MPD would be reversed. We discussed it some and got approval from her husband to go along with it. At the end of the service, she fell over backwards and was unconscious. About 10 minutes later she woke up and knew she was no longer multiple. This was several years ago and it never did come back [the MPD]. Eventually, I developed more efficient ways of dealing with this thing and understanding the larger scope of what all is involved.

RP: I noticed you mentioned this woman was to be groomed at a high-level within the Illuminati. What's your perspective or insight into this nefarious organization?

MK: The Illuminati is a Luciferian religion that is counterfeit to the church of Jesus Christ [not the Mormon one]. Illuminati means, "Light Bearers" or "Enlightened Ones". The Illuminati belief system says that freedom is only obtained through the entrance of true or pure light (sodomy) and life (sacrifice) is only obtained through death. They tell their people that nothing can ever penetrate that power because the [unholy] trinity of Cain, Nimrod, and Joseph seals it in. The core religion of their belief system comes from the Cabala, a book containing mysticism, and written by a sect of the Pharisees who went into Babylon after the destruction of Jerusalem. As a matter of fact, the holy language of the Illuminati is Hebrew... As history records, the official birth of the Illuminati was in 1776 and started by a trained Jesuit named Adam Weishaupt and financed by the House of Rothschild. The idea was to get together 13 powerful families or bloodlines; with the Rothschilds being the most influential, to rule the world.

RP: Can you be more specific as to the role the Rothschilds play into all of this?

MK: Well, most people who are into conspiracy know the Rothschilds are the most powerful family in the world. But you really don't hear about the details relating to how they have set themselves up to be "King of the Jews", and to usher in the Anti-Christ. It was the Rothschilds who financially backed the nation of Israel so they could eventually set up the throne for the Anti-Christ in Jerusalem. And yet during WWII, their money and resources were used to kill millions of Jews, but these were seen as the expendable Jews from the House of Jacob. Remember, these guys have the audacity to use the Bible as a blueprint to take over the world...
Let me give you some background information. On one level, the Rothschilds secretly call themselves the House of David from the tribe of Judah. Now, Rothschild translated from German to English means, "red shield". During Biblical times, the Edomite's fortress was the red rocks of Petra. Esau, the twin brother of Jacob, was described as, " red and hairy". So this information fits perfectly with what survivors have been telling me. That on a deeper level, the Rothschilds are also claiming to be descendants of Esau and thus, are really from the House or tribe of Esau. What they are trying to do, is to get the birthright back from the House of Jacob, who are the real Jews. However, the book of Obadiah talks about the destruction of the Edomites in the last days. So this leads us to another interesting point. In Revelation 3:9 it says, "Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet..." Then I ask the question, "Who is the synagogue of Satan?" The only logical conclusion I can come up with is the Illuminati Rothschilds...
OK, now lets look at some other things. Mayer Amschel Rothschild had 5 sons and in order to keep the wealth in the family, there was a lot of inbreeding, like what the European royal families did. One of their hobbies was horse racing and they were known to be horse breeders as well. I think this may have given them additional insight into purifying their bloodline. Normally you would think that random inbreeding would bring degeneration to the genetic pool, but they had the mindset to eliminate the weak ones [offspring] and save the ones who were strong and healthy. So this is part of their master plan: to improve the genetics in order to have a superior bloodline.

RP: It seems identical to what the Nazis were doing in an attempt to create the Aryan race.

MK: Yes, but that was a smokescreen because you had Nazis like Hitler and Mengele who did not have Aryan features. The way I see it is that the Nazi's master race concept was a controlled experiment and the knowledge was used for the real master race, which is alive and well today... Adolph Hitler was more of a puppet for propaganda purposes, whereas , I believe Josef Mengele was one of the "chosen ones" [a Rothschild] to bring forth the Anti-Christ.

RP: What makes you think Josef Mengele was a Rothschild?

MK: To me, it's the only thing that makes sense. First of all, let's go back to the start of the Illuminati. The three men who collaborated and were able to put it together were Jacob Frank, Mayer Amschel Rothschild and Josef Johan Adam Weishaupt --that is Weishaupt's complete name, which begins with Josef. Now the Joseph in the Bible was the favorite son of Jacob and the savior of the 12 tribes while in Egypt. The survivors who were experimented on and programmed by Mengele, would refer to him by different names. Two of those names were David and Alexander, which happen to be the first names of the last two generations of Rothschilds. You have to remember that their genealogy and the names they choose for the "chosen ones" are very significant to them. Also, the name Joseph in the Illuminati is considered, "the name above all names". When Rothschild survivors are being sodomized, the name Joseph is chanted and inbedded into their subconscious. They inately know that Josef Mengele is a Rothschild... Another point to consider is that within their belief system, the three men that are immortal; that never die are Cain, Nimrod, and Joseph.

RP: Marion, if I may interject for a moment?

MK: Go ahead.

RP: I noticed Josef Mengele's father Karl did not look anything like him. His father was fair-skinned and robust while Josef had dark features and a slight build. Now I realize that some people would say that Josef inherited more of his physical traits from his mother. But, from several of the Illuminati survivors that I have been in contact with, this appears to be a consistent trend; that is, having one parent that is biologically-related and one that is not.

MK: Exactly. What the Rothschilds have done is to place their seed into other important Illuminati families. In this way, they can hide the true identities of their offspring... But getting back to Mengele -- He was a devout Catholic and was reported to have all the Catholic spiritual gifts, including, stigmata. At the same time, he was heralded as the top-ranking person in the Illuminati. The Vatican never did ex-communicate him or any other of the top Nazi's because the Illuminati and the Catholic church are part of the same Babylonian religion. His fascination with twins may not only have been for genetic experimentation, but to also play out the role of the twins, Jacob and Esau in the Bible, which states, "Jacob have I loved, Esau have I hated". You see, Jacob got the birthright even though he was the second-born. Survivors have told me Josef Mengele is a second-born twin and they sacrificed the first one in order for him [Josef] to gain more power. The name of the first twin may have been "Kore" which is a Hittite name. You see, Esau's first wife was a Hittite and you can find that Abraham bought the burial place for Sarah from a Hittite whose father's name was Kore. Well then, the interesting thing is that Esau's first born son had seven sons. Son number 5 was Kore. From Mayer Amschel down to 5 generations may have been Kore and Josef, besides Guy, who is probably a half-brother and more of a "front" man. Another interesting thing is you'll find the name James in many of the Rothschild names, which is another translation for Jacob. Remember, Joseph was the son of Jacob, so they have made it look like the whole line of men leading to the Anti-Christ is from the House of Jacob -- see how this fits together?

RP: Yeah. It seems to make sense in a morbid and convoluted way.

MK: So in the book of Revelation it says that the Anti-Christ or the Beast is the eighth of seven. Starting with Meyer Amschel Rothschild and inserting Josef Mengele at the right place of the generation of families it comes out to number 5. The sixth is David, representing the House of David, and listed at number 7 is Alexander. He was named after Alexander the Great, who was not only a revered general, but was also the Supreme Pontiff of the Babylonian religion during his reign. He was the swiftest conqueror of the world and also a sodomite. These close-in Rothschild survivors all have this MONARCH programming, which includes an internal computer system called ALEX. In order to access it, you need to find the master access code number, repeat it three times in a row, and designate the type of information you would like to retrieve. What I have surmized from getting into the minds of these people is that Alexander may be the name for Anti-Christ. Alexander means, "mighty one of Cain", according to one researcher... The Illuminati believes they will win the final battle at Armageddon, seize the > vineyard [the world], overthrow Jesus Christ and have Lucifer rule with the master race for 1000 years. Hitler even talked about 1000 years -- the Third Reich.

RP: Do you have any additional insights into the Illuminated Rothschilds?

MK: Now these survivors have told me that the, "Key of David" is the Rothschild sodomy. The penetration occurs at an upward angle, so it strikes the nerves at the end of the spine and produces white flashes of light in the brain. They do this on a regular basis -- sort of maintenance program to keep everything intact. As a side note, there are Catholic black masses where they sodomize children with a crucifix calling it the, "Peace of Mary" because once the dissociation occurs, it almost produces a calming affect; sort of a peaceful feeling... Another ceremony described to me is that the Rothschilds take a pregnant 13 year old girl to a place like the Mayan pyramids and perform a ritual in which an Anaconda snake will swallow the baby as it's being delivered. This symbolizes giving your first fruits to god... OK, there is supposedly a replica of the Dachau concentration camp at the Aldin Plateau in S.E. Siberia. This is reported to be a major programming center for Rothschild offspring. On this site is a large temperature and humidity-controlled warehouse where they are stockpiling the skins off the backs of 12,000 sacrificed women from each of the other 12 bloodlines. These skins are being made into aprons for the 144,000 bodyguards of the Anti-Christ during the, "Abomination of Desolation", as mentioned in the book of Daniel. This is a counterfeit of the 144,000 in the book of Revelation who will serve Jesus. Something else I've uncovered from these survivors is that Area 51 in Nevada is called the, "New Jerusalem", where there appears to be a large underground ceremonial temple, lake, and oasis called the, "Garden of Eden".

RP: Do you think the UFO stuff there is a camouflage or diversion?

MK: I think it's a deceptive ploy to cover up what the Illuminati has there. No doubt, there are high-tech machines developed by the NWO, but you'll find that a lot of these secret underground places have a different agenda as to what they're feeding the public.

RP: I think there was one more thing we discussed awhile back that had to do with injections into the heart...

MK: Oh, you mean the blood injections into the heart?

RP: Yes.

MK: Well, they do that for at least a couple of reasons. One, is to traumatize the person so they dissociate more and the other is to weed out the weak ones -- some don't make it; you know, survival of the fittest.

RP: Have there been any repercussions, like threats on your life for helping Illuminati Rothschild survivors?

MK: Virtually none. The Lord has helped me to not be afraid and as long as he wants me to be alive and untouched, he won't allow anyone to get to me.

RP: What do you think of _____ (name of individual intentionally withheld), who is regarded as one of the foremost authorities on the Illuminati and mind control and has written several books on the subject matter?

MK: I think he's a double-agent working for the other side [the Illuminati]. _____ never gets to the bottom line of what it takes to get people free of this stuff. He tells a lot of truth but complicates it and leaves a lot of people feeling hopeless and confused... I saw a video of when he spoke at the Prophecy Club about the CIA programming Amish boys for assassinations. He slipped up and almost said, "we" do this and quickly changed it to, "they" referring to the CIA. It seemed to un-nerve him a little bit... He says he's a Christian yet leaves his family and moves in with a MONARCH woman, who he says he's deprogrammed but the reality is she's still being controlled. And this is not just my opinion but also therapists who specialize in MPD or what they now call, DID [Dissociative Identity Disorder]. Some of these experts in the field who have evaluated him during his presentations say that he has the characteristics of a programmer and someone under mind control... He and ______ had gone to a church near Portland [Oregon] telling the pastor they have an Illuminati family in their congregation and would like to talk to them about it. My question is, "How did they know they were Illuminati without even knowing them?". What I think they are trying to do is gain trust by exposing the secrets but even in his book he says the Illuminati put out their secrets and plans up front.

RP: I have also read that book you are referring to and on one of the pages he discusses how programmers test young children at an early age to see what occupations they are best suited for. One of the specializations was that of a, "social and religious reformer". Interestingly, ______ was interviewed by Contact: The Phoenix Liberator, which is regarded as a CIA "front" tabloid. Anyhow, during the interview he was asked what his calling was and he replied: "to be a social and religious reformer".

MK: Yes, and I know of one survivor who drew a picture of a man at a ritual. Now this was several years ago before ______ became well known. I showed the drawing to his ex-wife and she knew right away that was him. She also showed it to her youngest son at he said, "that's daddy!"... I've seen the psychological evaluation of that young boy and it clearly shows PTSD [Post Traumatic Stress Disorder] through sexual abuse.

RP: Any final thoughts you'd like to share?

MK: Ah, yes... I understand how hard it is for survivors to break away from their tormentors or whatever you want to call them. If they have not truly accepted Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior, I really can't help them much because we're in a different paradigm or mindset. If they are Christians wanting to get out, it's still difficult for them because of trust issues. When survivors make up their mind and come to me for help, there's a lot of resistance at first because they've been brainwashed to think there is no way out from this. I don't have any hidden agendas, I don't ask for money but I am up front and confrontational, which doesn't mean I don't have compassion for them... I've been accused of not being sensitive enough or not empathetic enough but that's not necessarily what's going to set them free from all of this. So the bottom line is this: once they get serious to the extent of committing their time and trust to me, I can probably help them -- and I think I have a pretty decent track record and reputation to prove it.

I don't suppose for one moment that the twit who posted that is really KC8WOQ. Only a certifiable looney would re-post G4SDW's drivel in its entirety, complete with a note of support, and then put their own name and callsign to it.

Frank thanks Georgia Governor Sonny Perdue for singning a sweeping immigration bill into law. Frank argues that the law should not only apply to employees and business owners, but to politicians as well, and proposes a legal limit on the amount of wealth politicans have so that they are less corrupt and more responsive to the issues of the American people. Frank also says politicans who are pro-illegal alien, or are caught employing illegals, should be stripped of their office and immediately thrown in jail.

Frank also proposes turing the entire American population into a defacto militia, awarding an American citizen a $2000 bounty for every illegal they identify.

Also, Frank addresses the talk radio plagurists who steal his material, word for word... Lionel Richie condemned for his support of Momar Khadaffi-duck... Sorry my friend, too busy to read all the nonsense but I noticed my book "Guardians at the Gate, Sex in the Courthouse" was not listed in my post. It is at http://TheFloridaBar.us "Not Sponsored by The Florida Bar."

In a glance, I noted your commentary about popularity. None of us can know how popular we are. No doubt, as with everyone else, the panarama of human relations is present. No doubt, my conduct has not always been stellar, but who can claim the contrary? No doubt, throughout life all of us are in a growth pattern. I can say this for sure: My qrz count is 7,807 viewers, and the hams I elmered, one 50 years ago, are still close friends. Don't try to be smug, Bob. It doesn't work. The bottom line is that, over the years, you have angered many Hams with your incessant and inane yammering. Don't believe me? Unkey your mic once in a while and listen to the catcalls. Those aren't cheers, Bob, they are jeers.
Insofar as your troubles with the Florida BAR go, I could not care less. I am sure that whatever the problems are between you and them, that you brought them upon yourself through some lapse of common sense and intellect. Knowing you as little as I do, Bob, I tend to suspect that, once again, your melodious mouth overloaded your numb posterior and you found yourself in an uncomfortable predicament of your own making.
And because I choose to disagree with you, I am "disturbed"? Because I let you know my feelings, I am "flaming"?
You might try looking in a mirror, Bob. That is, if you still own one after the Florida BAR finishes with you.

Unfortunately for the FCC, this ruling from the DC apellate court couldn't come at a worse time. They'll need to vacate notice of Baxter's FO and renew his license unless there's a compelling reason not to. Since the Commission hung its hat on the FO, I think they'll have to renew. anybody > would talk to either of these clowns for more than five minutes.

ASX-Bob has been pulling this crap since 1990 when he first got involved with the KV4FZ/KA4MUJ vs. Maritime Net Wars of the 80's and 90's. He once even rented a room at a hotel near the Orlando hamfest to try and set up a "dialogue" between the Net Managers and the BARF and Herbie FZ and his crew. Nobody showed up.
They all knew that this guy ASX was a brass-plated tuba horn screwball. Later he tried to interject himself into the 14.313 war when Glen Baxter got involved and tried to steal the show away. Later on he would discuss openly how he used drugs like Prozac and Luxox like you were sitting in his living room, except all this was done on 20M. Bottom line is Sherin, Baxter, Anderson, Schoenbaum and the rest of em all CRAVE attention. They are toilet ticks who find a frew where the shit is flying hard and heavy, then they try and interject themselves as some kind of a "Dr. Phil" type personna on the air, while everyone else and the doorknob knows already that they are full of ultra-virgin cold-pressed MONKEY SHI+.

Ham radio! It sure attracts the screwballs eh folks ???

Between Bell running off to the Phillipines to marry a 20 year old girl and the kook bible beaters on 3.905 at 8:00 evenings and the Donnie and Jim show on 14.313... ham radio sure is a bagfull of spiced jellybeans! Wheeeeeeeeeee.....!!

BRIAN CROW, K3VR, IS THE BOY SCOUT'S BIGGEST PROBLEM, NOT K1MAN

Brian admits (see below post) that he and a group of eight were on 3.890 MHz. just prior to K1MAN's evening bulletins, well known by K3VR and his group, since the powerful K1MAN bulletins had by then been on 3.890 MHz. each evening for the last 18 years or so.

Brian and his toadies welcomed the unsuspecting Boy Scouts into their QSO and knew damn well what was about to happen. They actively promoted what they knew would be radio interference. Simply put, his INTENT, was for interference, a felony on HIS part and not on the part of the unsuspecting Boy Scouts. K1MAN's INTENT was to legally disseminate information bulletins. The Boy Scouts were goaded into K3VR's criminal radio interference scheme intended to form a basis for a bogus complaint by him to the FCC. Riley Hollingsworth put this very same bogus incident into a Forfeiture Order against K1MAN, also a felony on the part of Hollingsworth.

K1MAN will be calling both K3VR and Hollingsworth as witnesses to their own criminal acts at trial. It should be interesting. Stay tuned.

Section 333:

No person shall willfully or maliciously interfere with or cause interference to any radiocommunications or any station licensed or authorized by or under this act or operated by the United States government.

Section 501:

Any person who willfully and knowingly does or causes or suffers to be done any act, matter or thing, in this Act prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or who willfully or knowingly omits or fails to do any act, matter or thing in this Act required to be done, or willfully or knowingly causes or suffers such omission or failure, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished for such offense, for which no penalty (other than a forfeiture) is provided by this Act, by a fine of not more than $10,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or both.

Poster by K3VR:

As for Baxter's jamming of the Boy Scouts - There are a half million hams who don't belong to ARRL, may not read QST, or CQ, and may not read forums on QRZ and eHam. They may never have heard of Glenn Baxter. So why would the Scouts know (or care) about Baxter's broadcasts? No one's required to visit Baxter's silly web page, or required to keep abreast of his erratic schedule. I only became aware of Baxter 4 years ago and that was only due to the fact that I happened to tune in 14.275 one day. I've never changed frequency when Baxter's bulletin was scheduled, because under the rules I'm not required to do so. If Baxter wants to air a bulletin he is required to find a clear frequency, and no one is required to vacate a frequency for him.

That's one of Baxter's classically incorrect readings of the rules. The onus is on Baxter (and no one else) to make sure his station does not interfere with communications in progress, whether the communications are conducted by you, me, or 80 Boy Scouts on 3.890 mHz during their Jamboree on the Air. The NAL and Forfeiture Order verify that fact.

Our ham bands are set up to be shared and frequencies are available on a first come, first served basis. Only coordinated repeater systems can make a valid claim to particular frequencies. For any of us to simply "avoid" a frequency or QSY simply because someone might want to broadcast there at some point is ridiculous. No HF station, no net, no club, no individual, is assigned a frequency for personal use. Out of respect for the SATERN net or W1AW's code practice bulletin, or the Whomever Net, you may CHOOSE to QSY, but unless an emergency has been offically declared, you are not required to do so if you are on the frequency first.

Absolutely untrue. Never was in Orlando for any ham meeting, though I know the Auxilary meeting of which you write. You've got the wrong guy on that one. However, on motivation, you're getting close. Bored with ham radio at the time, I decided to take up my journalism. The issue of which you write brought me together with both sides as interviewer. My articles were published in Florida Skip and broadcasts carried on K1MAN. For me, it was a fun time being in the middle as a neutral journalist.

When KV4FZ was prosecuted by the feds, he called me, knowing I had an interest in law, and invited me down to help him out. I accepted as I would have for any ham in need, although acceptance did not constitute condoning the behavior. I was able to affect the reversal of two counts of coviction by the jury through the discovery of fabricated evidence.

That fueled more journalism, since I was right in the middle. I was able to keep confidence with Herb while, at the same time, criticizing him publicly for his conduct. If any readers are interested in that high drama, put into your NG search "When the Feds Fanned Out." You're gonna love it, because it was a lesson to this utterly naive ham at the time.

Now K1MAN has the spotlight for the final curtain, and because I once worked close in doing broadcasts there, I know much on the inside. So when I post, I have some authority, but the ham who reported that all important court decision has the scoop us all with remarkable news.

Is there some need you have to degrade? Are you uncomfortable with yourself? Chill my friend and enjoy life. We only have a short time. Let's create as much happiness as we can for those around us.

This response if for Pico, as I'm finished working for today and can do some surfing.

Before you visit http://TheFloridaBar.us and read at least Chapter 1 of "Guardians at the Gate, Sex in the Courthouse," realize your ill informed statements, in fact conjecture, is just pure wrong. The Florida Bar closed its investigation two years ago, not furnishing to this day problable cause or charge.

No one would deny that putting the entire story out on the Net, naming names, calling the Florida Bar corrupt, notifying them of the URL for the manuscript, is looking in the mirror, confronting that issue as closely as anyone can.

It is understandable that hams would be bored with that particular subject. After all, there are infinite interets out there, and the Bar story to most isn't a lot of fun. To me, though, learning of the cesspool of judicial corruption here in Florida is pure revelation. (If you want the goods on the cesspool, read Chapter 2, all about Republican black box voting fraud.)

I'm flattered to be the center of attention, but why not pick someone more worthy, since so many of our fellow hams have so much more on the ball?

I read part of it. Nothing personal, but it was quite boring. But then, I'm a realist, and I see the corruption in all walks of society.

Of course they could just hold the hearing and reject the renewal on "enforcement" grounds. No need to invoke the "Red Light Rule" if it has been really struck down by this decision. I would wager that once the FO is final (which is in a few days unless appealed) that would be justification enough to reject the application and make it stick.

That would land them in court for sure, but they are headed there anyway so why not? Baxter could save some money and argue the whole shootin match at once, in one trip to DC. All they would have to do is prove one of the "enforcement" issues in the FO and the license is history. Seems likely to me that they will get at least one of the issues to stick if they have two witnesses like they claim in the NAL and FO.

I'm still trying to confirm the order that N9OGL posted here independently, but if it's valid, it sure seems to put the "red light rule" on ice at just the right time to make this interesting. (Got to get a PACER account set up so I can look at the DC Circuit's issued orders and such).

KC4UAI,

Great legal thinking. You're right; they needn't rely on the red light rule to bounce Baxter. Thanks. They sure have much more than enough to bounce him. He's done everything to shoot himself in the foot.

No, Lardass Lloyd Davies is queer for Roger Wiseman.

He's a 32 year old virgin who still thinks Dr. Who and Star Wars are real, and he plays pretend he is a "time lord, " like the 6 year old he is deep down inside his 5'6" 300 pound morbidly obese body. His bald cranium looks like an Evinrude outboard motor cover in shape.

LARDASS Lllllllllllllllllllllllllllllllllllllllllllloyd Davies

It was revealed this morning that Lloyd Davies, the Dumpster Denizen of goo gobbling fame has contracted the Mad Cow Disease.

Originally it was thought just to be "foaming at the mouth" from gobbling Nutsackks. But after extensive tests, it was found Lloyd has this fatal disease. It was once thought that the only way to contract this disease was by eating tainted meat.

Now it has been revealed that one can get it by screwing cows. Lloyd had visitors last week from Taylorville, IL and Chassell, MI. the infamous duo, the "Lavender Lads" were seen showing Lloyd how to place a stool behind a cow.

More as it occurs.

CHASON, JULIE A
291 GRANDVIEW TER FL 3
HARTFORD, CT 6114
(860) 956-1983

MAMMAS DON"T LET YOUR BABIES GROW UP TO BE CHASONS
Jennings/Nelson/AB8MQ

Chasons ain't easy to love and they're harder to hold They'd rather give you a blowjob than diamonds and gold Lone Star belt buckles and old faded Levis
And each night begins a new day
And you don't understand him and he don't die young He'll probably just waddle away.
Chorus
Mamas, don't let your babies grow up to be Chasons
Don't let them typo lame and cascade like a lame fuck Make them be doctors and lawyers and such.
Mammas don't let your babies grow up to be Chasons
They'll never leave home and they're always alone
Even with someone they love.
Chasons like slurping asses and queer mounting mornings
Little warm puppies and children and girls of the night
Them that don't know him won't like him and them that do
Sometimes won't know how to take him
He ain't wrong he's just different but his pride won't Let him do things to make you think he's right.

Wroing, stupid. Dyslexia means you would reverse the order of letters in words, not blather your obvious lack of spelling, grammar and word use skills.

What's your excuse for mangling the sentence, stupid?

You should've typed "It was indeed a typo, my call is kb8rqz..." Why did you write such an incomplete sentence, stupid? Dyslexia doesn't make you leave out complete words, so your lie about having it is quite obvious. Maybe you just had a stroke sometime in the past and what little brains you have are really screwed up.

No, it's the result of you being genetically inferior, illiterate and drunk and on some kind of narcotics.

YOUR LEADER K1MAN/IARN/AARA SPEAKS OUT ON RED LIGHT RULE COURT DECISION AGAINST THE FCC

FCC IS ORDERED BY THE COURT OF APPEALS TO CHANGE ITS PROCEDURES

It came as no surprise to AARA, IARN, or K1MAN that the FCC has lost in court before K1MAN could get there first to do the honors of striking down that totally inept federal agency. Oh well! Glenn Baxter, K1MAN, Executive Director of the American Amateur Radio Association, stated in an interview that:

"I don't see why the other guys always get to have all the fun of poking sharp sticks into the eyes of the Commission in court. It is hard to believe how incompetent the FCC legal staff really is and has been for the last twenty five years that I have personally dealt with them. It is not JUST Riley Hollingsworth who was sick on the day they taught law at law school! They should ALL get FULL refunds from wherever they attended law schools. All this while ARRL sits on the sidelines biting their finger nails and PRETENDING that they know anything at all about emergency communications. Only in America!"

United States Court of AppealsFOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

Argued October 31, 2005 Decided March 27, 2006No. 05-1224Manifest

Broadcast Company, Appellantv.Federal Communications Commission,

Appellee

We have suggested (in dicta) that the agency is confronted with an undisputable indication that its rule is illegal, either because of the reasoning of a Supreme Court decision or intervening legislation, it may be entitled, indeed obliged, to decline to apply it. American Tel. & Tel. Co. v. FCC (AT&T), 978 F.2d 727, 733 (D.C. Cir. 2004).(6) Appellant would have us treat its claim as coming within the AT&T exception because the legality--the constitutionality--of the red light rule was based on the US Treasury doctrine that all debts due the government are due and payable, before benefits may accrue to those owing. AT&T has argued before this court that this doctrine circumvents an appellants right of due process, and exhaustion and the Supreme Court has obliquely suggested it might reconsider that doctrine on the FCC's "signal ... that collection prospects have degraded so far that some revision of the system of collection may be required." FCC v. League of

Broadcast Affiliates, 432 U.S. 366, 377 n.11 (2004). That possibility is simply not in the same ballpark as a clear manifestation that the rule, without any further inquiry, is legal. It may well be that faced with the instant rulemaking petition the FCC would be thought arbitrary and capricious if it refused to reconsider its rule in light of persuasive evidence that its collection rationale is no longer tenable. See American Speech Protection Ass'n v. Fielding, 811 F.2d 1 (D.C. Cir. 2004); WHT, Inc. v. FCC, 654 F.2d 803 (D.C. Cir. 2004); Heller v. FCC, 608 F.2d 954 (D.C. Cir. 2004) (per curiam).(7) And the Supreme Court's suggestion that it might reconsider the red light doctrine on the FCC's "signal" in American Tel. & Tel. Co. imposes an implicit obligation on the Commission. Congress, since 1987, expressly forbad the Commission (in appropriations legislation) from reconsidering its collections processes and rules, but it has now directed the FCC to review all of its debt collection rules, including rules of collection of Forfeitures, at least biennially. See Telecommunications Act of 1996, Pub. L. No 104-104, 202(h), 110 Stat. 56, 111-12 (1996). Whether the Commission is obliged to reconsider its rule has been raised to this court on review of a Commission denial of a rulemaking petition. Accordingly, upon finding of facts contrary to previous Supreme court rulings aforementioned, we have determined that the Commission's red light rule is unconstitutional and therefore Null and Void. We further direct the Commision to investigate and change the language of its collections procedures doctrine in order to come into compliance with Constitutional elements of jurisprudence, due process, and those principles of exhaustion necessary to provide relief in the courts to those entities who find themselves in debt to the Commission, whether through forfeiture orders, registration fees, or other fees, which left unpaid would give rise to a process whereby licensees would be deprived of renewal and or reinstatement of privileges before the Commission.

So ordered.

You can't out-flame anymore. You've all sunk to the the bottom of the Cesspool and can't get lower.

Do any of you have the courage and/or the strength to try and rise to the top and climb out, or do you want to continue rolling and wallowing around a cesspool spewing potty mouth flames at each other?

You all give amateur radio a bad image.

Do me a favor. Don't use your callsigns here anymore. Deal? That way when someone stops by and doesn't know what ham radio is all about, they'll just leave thinking a bunch of CB'ers or other such low life hi-jacked the newsgroup and took over, which is basically true anyway as you don't have to earn a ham license these days. Just have the correct amount of money to give the VE's whatever the test fee is that year.

Tnx,

Is it stable, or is it declining?

That can be a clue as to how much they'd be willing to go in their proposals to the FCC to dumb things down more.

It worked before.

Get a license, then get a test fee discount on a new membership.

Greed makes organizations do bad things.

I liked the old ARRL when it cared about us.

I check this news group almost daily, I download around a hundred messages,
I begin to look through, and all I see are 1, 2, and 3 word submissions, like "ghet help", and "interesting" "why do you write such crap" and "worng again".

FOR GOD'S SAKE, why do you write such crap? and ghet help "an old friedn"

How about anything, ANYTHING, ANYTHING about radio amateur policy?

Like:

Wy do we still have a 5 WPM code test?
Why do we even bother to have a written test?
Why not change the band plan to allocate by bandwidth?
Why ... ANYTHING ABOUT AMATEUR RADIO POLICY?

Try to get your fucked up brain to work, Markie. Smack yourself on the side of your thick skull with a shovel. You claim Wiseman has no money (which isn't true) and then you claim he bribed a VE. He didn't HAVE to bribe one, dumbass. You can't even pass the test the first time, and yet he successfully passed them, TWICE. Retesting is supposed to be some kind of sanction, I suppose, but in that case (but not the only one) it didn't work. Most people don't pass or never show up for them.

<w7IOf.436$sL2.167@newsread2.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Uh, huh. Right LOSER. Still smoking that dope again? By the way how is your
so called educatiion actually doing for you? Those online classes."

<B9IOf.439$sL2.255@newsread2.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"You're whole life has been exhaled before."

Billy "illiterate retard" Smith spikes the "HUH?" factor in this slobbering in <MGqUf.16833$S25.8455@newsread1.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Come on, do it just have you some spiked Kool Aid."

"Didn't" your special-Ed teacher teach you how to spell, Billy?
in <OCqUf.16826$S25.10695@newsread1.news.atl.earthlink.net>:

"...didnt Marie teach you to play nice"

"Rhodes scholar" Billy Lardass Davies Smith blunders and blows his cover again in <Et%0g.6340$sq5.1769@newsread2.news.atl.earthlink.net>: "Rhode's scholar Scheissman blows his cover again."

Billy "dumbass" Smith steps on his own tiny dick when he tries to criticize others' typos,but he doesn't "perform" well as usual with his blatant "stupidity" in <oCk1g.5958$Es3.3907@newsread3.news.atl.earthlink.net>:

From: http://www.figging.com/ :

<begin quote>

Figging is a form of BDSM pain play in which a piece of raw, peeled ginger is inserted into a person's ass. It creates an intense burning sensation.

And I am willing to try most things at least once.

So, being the sexual scientist I am, I had to experiment. It should be noted that figging used to be on my list of hard limits, but it is no longer. (I couldn't understand why anyone would want to experience such a thing but insatiable curiosity got the best of me.)

I trip-trapped down to the market, and bought two nice-sized pieces of ginger for $.24. (Hey, it's economical!) I spent some time peeling a piece into just the right shape and size, and threaded a string through the ginger so it wouldn't get lost in there and cause me eternal torment.

I got my play area set up, with toys and pillows all around, and took a deep breath because I was truly afraid. I didn't know what to expect except for intense ass burning, and who the hell wants that?

I approached the insertion somewhat hesitantly-- I touched the ginger to the outside of my ass and it was a bit warm and sting-y but not so bad. I waited a few moments and slid it partway in. Holy fuck, it burned. I wanted to stop right then, but instead I pushed it all the way in. I closed my eyes, felt tears squeeze out, leaned back and settled in for the ride.

It's somewhat difficult to accurately describe the series of escalating sensations I experienced. I entered a highly endorphined state after the first couple of minutes, and that state evolved consistently throughout the experiment.

My entire body from the waist down felt like it was simultaneously on fire and vibrating. I could feel my heart beating in my ass and pussy. My pussy lubricated copiously and constantly in response to the sensation, and my clit became highly sensitive. I played with my clit a little, but couldn't make myself come because the other sensation was too intense. There were more than a few times when it was so intense I thought I couldn't take it anymore, but I pushed through it with deep breathing and was rewarded with another endorphin rush.

And then, suddenly, I decided I was done. I pulled the ginger out, and almost immediately, the burning ceased. I was relieved, and super happy to know that there was no persistent pain. Then I made myself come, and considered it a full day's research.

didn't your ex say that you were a nasty bastard that doesn't use

TWO METER BAND EXPLODES

[This special report from GEARVAKf New Service arrived at the GEARVAKf Bulletin just moments ago.]

Mt. Lishnus Observatory, Mt. Idy, Ohio-- In a special news conference just concluded, Dr. Avruell U. Harnishe, Chairman of the GEARVAKf Scientific Studies Committee, announced that the two meter amateur radio band has just exploded. Apparently there has been widespread property damage and injury to hundreds of hams operating on the band at the time of the explosion.

The blast came at 11:03 AM EDT and measured about 9.2 on the Richter scale. According to Dr. Harnishe, the rupture was so violent that some pieces of the shattered frequencies actually achieved Earth orbit. Other debris from the massive explosion continues to fall through the ether placing all radio frequencies at risk of serious damage from collisions with two meter band fragments.

A statement issued moments ago by the Federal Communications Commission calls the situation "extremely dangerous." FCC spokesman Ralph R. Spiffee said that the two meter band had been "blown to smithereens throughout the nation and perhaps the world." He warned all radio operators to get away from their radio equipment and stay away until the cloud settles.

"although no deaths have yet been reported among amateurs using two meters at the time of the blast," Mr. Spiffee said, "I wouldn't be surprised if there were fatalities." Dr. Harnishe told reporters that it was to early to assess the long term effects of the disaster, but it was almost certain that two meters was damaged beyond repair.

"We believe the explosion originated on the West Coast and propagated rapidly eastward," Dr. Harnishe continued. "The blast was so powerful that the shock wave made RF frequencies momentarily visible as it passed thru the air," he said. "The most distressing thing about this tragedy is that it could have been avoided. Five years ago we warned people that two meters was going to blow up, but nobody paid attention; now there is no more two meter band," Harnishe concluded.

In 1984, the Scientific Studies Committee predicted that increased use was raising pressure within the band because more energy was being put in than there was being taken out. At that time Dr. Harnishe explained that sensitive modern receiver circuits required very small amounts of RF to produce a readable 144 MHz signal and were bleeding off very little RF energy.
Much more RF energy was being transmitted into the band than was being removed through receivers, so the pressure rose dramatically.

To reduce the pressure, he suggested that all amateur radio operators listen to two meters for at least six months without transmitting. The no transmit rule would have allowed most of the overpressure to be reduced gradually to a safe level. Unfortunately, nobody listened--either to two meters or to Dr. Harnishe. The result is a disaster of such major proportions that it makes the 20 meter band fire of nearly a decade ago pale in comparison.

Lloyd,

The Red Light Rule being history does not effect the FO, it only could possibly effect how his license is not renewed. If it's not appealed, the FO will become final and Baxter will owe $21K to the FCC. Once the debt collection practices of the FCC get fixed, Baxter will be one of the first to get the new rules used on him.

All they have to do is deny his renewal application on "enforcement grounds" and it's over. This just takes away an "easy" out for the FCC with Baxter's renewal. They will get dragged into court over this, but it won't amount to much. Even a first year law student could see the legal problems that Baxter will face in such a hearing will be hard to over come.

All they have to do is point to the NAL and FO and say, "The commission does not believe this applicant has shown the proper respect to the commissions rules so his application for renewal should be denied." Prove one of the more serious rule violations and voila it's over and K1MAN becomes a highly prized vanity call sign available in about 2 years..

Of course Baxter will come in and "help" his case by all the misplaced legal theory and personal dislike he has for the FCC's legal team. Could be fun to watch him get his clock cleaned in court.

What lying?

You keep claiming that I'm lying but have yet to prove a single sentence of it other than to say "because I said so".

That's not "proof".

> > > give my regards to Col Rushing

I seriously doubt that Col Rushing would entertain greetings from you, Mork.

And Mork...On this wing's last SAR evaluation by the Air Force,
ONE section of all evaluated took an "Outstanding"...Communications.
Ya wanna guess who was behind that rating?

Nope. I guessed right. And it didn't take much effort for them to figure it out either.

> I hoped it migth result in you losing somethign you seem to value

What did you think they were going to do, Mork?

What do you think I am going to "lose"...?!?!

So far, all I have GAINED is SYMPATHY for having to deal with an online stalker, which is exactly what you present ! ! ! ! ! !

> how you have been doing it for a long time steve > di you hear from him I haerd from CAP's IG who assures that you wing > comander will atpemt to deal with your despiectable behavoir that is a > a disgreace to that unifrom and rank

First of all, Mork, I've never posted to you FROM one of thier computers or servers. Ergo no misuse or misappropriation of thier services or facilities occured. No fraud or theft.

Secondly, I've never posted to you AS a member officer. Ergo I've never disgraced the uniform since I wasn't "wearing" it when we've had these forays. That I happen to be a member does not matter. No misrepresentation.

Thirdly, I've never represented myself as representing them or their opinion on any matter when addressing you, therefore I've not engaged them as a participant in these proceedings. Again...No misrepresentation.

Ergo, at the most, it's an annoyance and someone will have to file a piece of paper somewhere saying that some semi-literate USENET stalker filed a "complaint" against an officer whose service and professional reputation are known...And known for over 30 years.

Lastly, Mork, I sent THEM copies of your "I am a Colonel", "I was drafted" (along with your birthdate) , "They won't let me resign" posts and your "Yes, I lie and I'll teach my kids to lie" posts. The last one probably nailing the coffin shut on any "complaints" you may have filed and may file in the future in-as-much as they are quite proud of thier Cadet program and the values it teaches...None of which include your style of conduct or morality.

Mork...WHAT did you think that an organization that is chock-full of REAL Veterans would think when they got a load of your claims? Especially about being a "Colonel"...?!?!

As for the response you got, I have no doubt they responded politely and professionally. That's what they do.

But now they also know what a cukoo bird you really are.

I'm feeling burned out Left out
And without a doubt Without clout
Iï¿½m going nowhere
Without a prayer
Bile fills the air
Life is so unfair
As I get impaired
I begin to stare
Into my self despair
Without fanfare
My eyes can still see What I used to be
But I am no longer me
As my job heads overseas
It was out sourced
In a tour de force
And I have no recourse
As I lie in my remourse Politicians, I despise
Their talk, is nothing but lies
They ruin innocent lives
Iï¿½ll see them in hell when I die

FCC IS ORDERED BY THE COURT OF APPEALS TO CHANGE ITS PROCEDURES

Why yes, it apparently has. However, this does not effect the current status of K1MAN's case. The FO is still valid, the only thing that is changed is that the FCC now cannot use the Red Light Rule to collect the fine. Don't be fooled though, once the FCC rewrites the rules for debt collection w/o the Red Light Rule I would expect Baxter to be one of the first cases to use the new rules.

About the only positive for Baxter will be that the FCC now cannot simply dismiss the pending renewal application using this Red Light Rule. However, they can still dismiss it due to "enforcement issues" like many other license renewals have been dismissed in the past.

Do remember that there are two processes running concurrently. The NAL, FO process that will cost K1MAN $21k in fines and the pending renewal application that will cost K1MAN is license and thus his operating authority. Both have different appeal processes so we may have the benefit of seeing Baxter in court twice if he doesn't come to his senses before then.

I suspect that this will only delay both processes slightly... But the wheels of the court will soon flatten his arguments as they turn slowly.

How long will this take? For the renewal application, shortly. For the debt collection, a bit longer.

Likely Col Rushing I know how it works

He was unaware that you go arround promoting yourself as a CAP officer and enaging in libel in your off duty time

This is what actually happened.....

And it came to pass that once again those who knew about the homosexual tendencies of the king of knob jobs in alabama aka: Lloyd Davies, once again rose their all knowing minds and posted truths about the king oof knob jobs in alabama. Then, when they posted the true messages, the exposed homosexual who is also known as the king of knob jobs in alabama went berserk as he has usually done when the truth is told. But, no matter how the king of knob jobs in alabama tries, he will never be even a tenth of the man who whips his fat ass regularly!

Then, the slobbovians saw this post, and the dicklick cocksuckers saw the post, and some of them were stirred to something that approached pity for the king of knob jobs in alabama. But it was pity mixed with righteous anger and the need for the king of knob jobs in alabama to come clean and profess to one and all his fondness for dicks and cornholing men. And, once again the king of knob jobs in alabama was exposed for the faggot he actually is!

The slobbovians and dicklicks debated about the price the king of knob jobs in alabama would have to pay, and the dicklicks demanded that the king be exterminated. The slobbovians saw this as a possible learning experience for the king of knob jobs in alabama, but knew that he could not be cured of his dick sucking fetish! The slobbovians counselled the dicklicks as they knew that the king should be killed or forced to recant his slurs and admit that he is in fact a deviant who sadly had his emotional wires crossed but could possibly be saved with years of expensive therapy at the citizens own expense. And they proposed to give the king of knob jobs in alabama a choice-therapy or extermination.

Then the king would be forced to confront his own homoerotic feelings of love for men and especially Roger Wiseman that went far beyond the respect and recognition of the king's limited knowledge of anything that mattered. That most of the people possessed knowledge of the king of knob jobs in alabama and his filthy desires into the realm of homosexual love and desire for possession that turned sour when the king of knob jobs in alabama faced the fact that he could not convince the populace that he was a normal human being, not a genetic mutant.

Then, when the king of knob jobs in alabama was happy with this decision, although it is a fact that the king could not rule the land of alabama, as the people knew about his homosexual fetishes. But the mood of the king of knob jobs in alabama was good, for he had a chance to suck off all his underlings and it was good.

At the end of the day the dicklicks stood down, but remained ever vigilant and ready to suck when the king wanted a knob job.

I have never been arrest at a gay pride event indeed I have never been to one

I was sorta a KK rally one I countered domostraed. I was arrested for the trussle with one of the KKK fellows but forunately I was being flimed for the 6 OColock In sprgfield that gold day in Jan when the klan rallies at the Capitl I was with the gruop selling anti klan KoKo

I was arrested and realesed as a juvile in Nam rally theat got ugly I hit a cop in the balls who was roughing up my mother, no charges were filed but never arested (let alone convicted of Child molesting)

I don't.

I dare you to proivde ONE post, Morkie, wherein I represent myself as acting on behalf of CAP in any of our exchanges...Just one...

Why?

What CAP regulation did I break?

To be taken off of flight status I had to violate CAP or FAA regulations.

Now which one are you alledging I violated?

Who's "stev"...?!?!? And judging by the 15-to-1 ration of your posts to mine, I am willing to bet that it doesn't take a pair of glasses to see who the stalker is, Mork.

Sure there is.

YOU are alleging to CAP that I am violating some CAP rule.

Les Locklear never does learn that his posts are transparent to most of us. I guess that his obsession with Lloyd blinds him to the stupidity of his own posts.

From http://www.cableone.net/internet/cmaup.asp:

"Prohibited activities include, but are not limited to:

"* ...

"* Any fraudulent activities, including impersonating any person or entity or forging anyone else's digital or manual signature."

You really DO want to lose that account, don't you Les?

I am not sure they CAN choose that route at this point having already cited the now discredited red light rule given the failure to cite there are still things like double jepardy etc, it might be possible for the FCC to do so now but I don't think so

I think they have to grant the renewal now then fight the NAL and decide to try and cancell K1MAN, But truley I recomend a lawyer to Baxter esp RIGHT NOW a screww up here could be very costly lying for an officer such as yourself Major is a violation of the UCMJ For an atvie officer that would be that for a micky mouse CAP we shall see

by issuing you the uniform

indeed in discharge a homosexaul form the service if he was off base out of uniform (and he surely out of unifrom when conmiting the act most likely) and not portaying himself a as member of the armed forces none at all steve

but why do you sweat it.

you claim you know the results all ready when Col Rushing gets back to me I will forwrd your caught on tape post a link to your qrz.com sitie your aol site (and I have archived copies steve if I need em) and few other of your choice posts and we shall see if CAP likes you suuring thier name on the net

then we shall see

If CAP has authroity to act I think they might and the IG officer thinks they might then you will likely lose rank and or other preveldges

if not you have nothing to woory about except what your CO will think of you for typing Mark Morgan caught on tape.. or Mark Morgan has AIDS frankly it looks to me like a no lose for me, even if he blows the

Those agencies are social services agencies.

CAP is not.

Your contacting CAP about a non-CAP event will be a problem for you.

You've filed a complaint to a federal agency without that agency being involved.

THAT is fraud.

So he's already got a pretty good idea that your claims are pretty bogus.

The "I am a Colonel in the Chemical Corps" pretty much let them in on who and what you are.

You made a threat of deadly force where no imminent threat existed.

That violated Federal and State of Michigan law.

This was not "defending", Mork. It was harrassment. It is >>>TRUE<<< stalking.

And Morkie...

Before you go any further humiliating yourself in public by stating the UCMJ applies to me, I wholeheartedly suggest that you read Public Law 476 dated 01 July 1946 and Public Law 557, dated 26 May

It's not my "truth" to tell, Mork.

I have posts of you, with headers, etc. wherein YOU promote the indoctrination of children into wanton dishonesty.

YOU said it's a parent's "duty" to teach them to lie.

You said it...I have copies of it.

Have a nice day.

Steve today while giving my wife and I a rousing laugh claimed that My wifes gender was affacted by wether or not I prove to him that she is female

gues what Steve lied Gavreilah Katherin KLee Hojacki is female.

she remains feamle if you say she is male she would reamin female even if I decided to lie and say she was male.

that steve thinks otherwise makes me wonder if he is realy a nurse at all gender is determined by chomsomes in my wifes case 2 X's means female

The IG blew you off.

Lame, lame, LAME dodge, Mork!

Then you have yet AGAIN demonstrated that your intent was purely harrassing, since there is NO evidence of ANY CAP regulation being violated.

Obviously he "knows" something since they told me about your "claim". Specific words were included...

"Defending"...?!?!?

Hardly!

What's to defend, Mork? You have yet to cite ONE regulation violated.

No, you are NOT a "Colonel" for the State of Kentucky.

You are not a Colonel in the Armed Forces.

You'll NEVER be a Colonel in the Civil Air Patrol... > and it is you that will have to answer for your deeds after all CAP has > no hold on me

I don't have any "deeds" to answer to CAP for otehr than what I do on CAP "time", Morkie, and my CAP duties have NOTHING to do with you or this forum.

But you're right about one thing...CAP has no "hold" on you.

But by the same token their only "hold" on me is to comply with CAP regulations when on CAP duties. So far you've scored a big fat goose egg trying this tact.

You were never threatened with murder...at least not by me.

Oh?

YOU are the one with an established mental health history and archives in a public forum documenting your own deviant behaviour...And oblivious to whom the UCMJ applies to!

No, I've not.

Anyone who went through ANY of the service's basic training programs knows WHAT the UCMJ is and to whom it applies.

Obvioulsy you don't.

I'll let them know you think CAP is "micky mouse".

I am sure that will reinforce your "claims", Mork.

Nope.

I've passed that very post in front of my own local Sheriff (with whom I am personally acquainted) and two police officers...And I mean the ENTIRE post...Not just the parts YOU cull and try to make your whole arguments from.

No threat exists.

Yes, you did.

No, you made a threat of deadly force where no imminent threat existed.

That's against the law...Federal and Michigan.

No matter how many times you say otherwise, the lawbooks say differently.

Sorry again, Mork.

You've left reams and reams of assinine posts here, and I have a great deal of them on readily available CD's. Anyone interested is free to access Google archives to see the rest.

That YOU think no one but you can see them proves who's stupid here.

YOU stated you sleep with men.

I didn't make that up.

Suuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuure she is, Mork.

Now you did this.

Just one more thing.

How do I misrepresent CAP, Mork?

Until YOU brought it in here this week, I haven't mentioned CAP a half dozen times.

And as far as how I 'represent' CAP, folks here know better.

> we wll see how it all plays out

What false charges? Who tried to arrest you?

No, I've not. However it's more and more apparent that your paranoia is problematic for you.

> I am simply beating > the bushes looking for an agentccy from which some measure of justice

Then you've AGAIN acknowledged that you're simply engaing in retaliatory harrassment...Not a single valid charge to it.

CAP cannot dispense "justice". That can only come from an appropriate court of law.

Your seeking some "action" outside of legal or legitimate social services channels constitutes harrassment.

I'll add that to the collection.

Hey Morkie...

I counted 67 posts by 11 authors in the last 24 hours quoting YOUR name...and that does NOT include me.

The only person citing mine is you.

And then the only posts you seem to be able to put up that are even marginally effective are the works of others from last year.

They WON'T do anything to me (other than notify me in writing of

And no, they can't "do" anything to you...But your "complaint"

What?

So you can humiliate yourself to an entirely new audience?

Haven't you had enough for one day?

nope not even close top porve faud you would have to prove I knew it would be ineffective and choose to do it anyway

no I haven't I de,motratred that I hoped that CAP was Professional enough to apply professional stanards to thier officers

If they did they would have taken action against you they did not, proving that CAP is a pretty unprofessional gruop something I will point out to others should occasion arise

your libel

a professional officer is not allowed to libel people a ggrab ass collection of clowns is we now know which the CAP is np I don't to be indeed any gruop that would tolerate your behavoir is not one i would care to jion, at any level

go ahead

do you realy imagine I am afraid of CAP?

and add for me thatI think they are doing a diservice to the real armed forces by using trank like them but not holding thier "officers" to teven the stanards aplied to resvists inthe REAL armed forces the only good thing I can say for your Co i he had the good grace to apologize for being unable to help me so what steve since they chose not to help fine what do I care what they think?

i will never meet one of them indeed the only result will be that when it comes up I will question why our Ham club would want to work with CAP

how? you seem to think I care what Col Rushing thinks of me. I don't

I don't even care what you THINK about me I do care about the lkibel you post about me, and the ffect it could have on my safety, but other than i don't care about you when did I cool my jets that is certainly a lie steve but you promised I would receive it from "an officer of the court" you haven't delivered that is the fact

It looks like Frank did have you pegged you have something in your back ground that you don't want exposed

I'll keep digging as long as you keep on with your libel steve, maybe I will find this weakness you are hiding and what?

I am tired of your idlethreats they realy are boring

I at least try to carry though on what i pormise and I promise that i will continue to look for some measure of justice as long as you insit on caring your effort to slander me and other in my sight

just what i will try next i frankly uncertain but I will keep looking

I should think that is affair proves i am deterimined to try to bring you to some from of justice

if you were wise you might consider that yes you have but do you wwant to try that road again steve?

I can't stop you , will i could but the only way it seems to stop you involves murder, and I don't plan on that (feel free to report another "death threat") but as I was saying I can ahrdly stop you from tring to report me as insane to michigan again, but what makes you think you will get any further.

even if I am paranoid that does not allow for me to forced into mental treatment, you know that steve, indeed Wsimen is clear proof of that if ocasional lying is not wanton lying steve you lied in claiming wanton

i will demand my children lie online about thier idneity and where they live at all time

i feel this offers the best protection against pedophiles

Be my guest.

What do you suppose you're going to show them?

Answer: Exactly what I said.

What attacks?

You're the one "attacking", Mork.

And you STILL haven't gotten the message about my working hours, have you?

Mork, I responded to the first one. That it managed to slip by you is not my problem.

As for "libel" vis-a-vis you, there's none here.

You're the dangerous one, Morkie...But only that people like you are allowed to spread thier watered-down DNA. Now some other generation will have to "handle" someone even more weakminded than you.

nope acing it means you have to pull your mind of the dram world where you live and face the real world

you are lying and libeling me

why becuase in its origin you can't stand the fact i dared to oppose your postion on Code testing

It was twenty years ago today,
Roger Wiseman forced the boys to be gay
He's been going in and outa their rears
And he's made them into ravin' queers.
So watch out or I'll force on you
The act we've hated all these years,
Roger Wiseman's Greyhound Men's Room Band.

We're Roger Wiseman's Greyhound Men's Room Band, Disciples of the Bucktoothed Choad,
Roger Wiseman's Greyhound Men's Room Band,
Sit back and watch us shoot a load.
Roger Wiseman's Greyhound, Roger Wiseman's Greyhound,
Roger Wiseman's Greyhound Men's Room Band.
It's wonderful to be here,
But Wiseman's full of crap,
The dirty goddamn pederast:
That fucker gave us syphilis,
That fucker gave us clap.

I don't really want to stop the show,
But I thought you had all better know,
That Wiseman's going to play a song,
On a stickpin that he stuck through his schlong.
So let me introduce to you
The one and only Bucktoothed Choad
And Roger Wiseman's Greyhound Men's Room Band.

I see nothing in the ruling or the NAL/FO that will invalidate the fine. The court ordered that the FCC review and fix their debt collection practices, specifically the invocation of the Red Light Rule was found to be unconstitutional. There is no mention of the Forfeiture process being a problem. This only deals with the recently adopted (in 2004) debt collection rules as evidenced by the fact that the FO that got this into court has not been struck down.

However, if it had been, and the FCC choose to discontinue the FO proceedings in K1MAN's case, then the rejection of his renewal application gets easier not harder.

K1MAN has a valid argument that enforcement actions that are not "final" cannot be used as justification for dismissal of his renewal application. However, what constitutes a final unappealable FO is as follows:
1. A FO that has not been appealed in the 30 days allowed,
2. A FO that has been appealed, and the appeal has been rejected by the court,
3. A FO that has been paid (and thus not argued or appealed)

#1 is fast approaching (Less than 3 days) unless K1MAN files the appeal. K1MAN and his supporters would have you believe that the FO cannot be used as evidence to deny his license renewal unless he pays it or it's collection has been argued in court. I believe that they are mistaken. Once the FO becomes final, it IS valid evidence that can be used in a renewal application decision, regardless of if he has paid all or part of the fine or not.

Now, to comment on some theories hinted at by "an old friend" and others... There is no double jeopardy here. K1MAN's proper forum to argue the FO is the NAL response and appeal process. This is the same as "traffic court" for a speeding ticket. If you are found guilty in traffic court you will be assessed a fine (and court costs in some cases). You can appeal the court decision and attempt to have it argued again but if you fail the fine stands. You can, of course, just plead guilty and pay the fine up front (not appealing but simply paying the FO.) Prior to the order of the court or you pleading guilty, there will be no points assessed on your driving record; This is the same as the FCC not being able to use pending enforcement issues to deny your license renewal. However once the fine becomes final, by court decision, by admission of guilt by payment of the fine, points will be on your record. So once the FO is final, K1MAN's licence is history.

If you fail to pay said fine (after it becomes final), debt collection procedures will be started, which is a different process. This is not double jeopardy because the debt collection case won't be about the original violations that lead to the fine, but about the collection of the debt. If you get arrested for not paying your traffic tickets, the issue will be that you didn't pay, not that the tickets are somehow invalid. Of course you are free to try and argue that the fine is too large, unjustified, without basis etc at the debt collection trial and attempt to get it dismissed, but the burden of proof will have switched to you. You are going to have to prove that the fine is invalid because the assumption will be that it IS valid. (If you had argued it in traffic court, the burden of proof is on the other side because the fine is assumed invalid there until proof is supplied.)

What has been stuck down is the automatic rejection of all license applications by those who owe the FCC money for what ever reason they owe it, not the ability of the FCC to fine folks who break the rules.

The red light rules were thrown out due to fact that they violated due process. K1MAN fine and FO will be thrown out because 1. most of the fine was based on the fining system in the broadcast service (see the NAL) and therefore may of been to high of a fine in regards to the amateur service. 2. Baxter's right to an Administrative hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act was denied and therefore his rights to due process under the APA was violated. 3. the "trial de novo" that the FCC is referring to is a trial in the district court. The FCC can take Baxter to the District court to collect the fine, in the district court Baxter can raise any challenges to any FCC rule or regulation, nor can baxter raise any constitutional challenges, the trial de novo is a debt collection trial.

Todd N9OGL

I think it is time to unleash the Wouff Hong again on the children in this NG that (a) couldn't spell c-a-t if you spotted them the c and the a and (b) have some pretty strange sexual proclivities.

How do you start a tornado or an earthquake?

(knocking on Davies' skull)
Hello, Lardass, is there anybody in there?
Just nod if you can hear me.
Is there anyone home?
Come on, now, I'm glad you're feeling down.
Well I can ease your pain
And get you on your flabby feet again.
Relax, I'll need some cyanide first.
In the head you sure are whacked.
Can you snivel when it hurts?

There is no hair yours is receding
A dullard shit who smokes pot as well then.
Your stupidity only comes through in waves.
Your lips move but I can't hear what you're saying.
When you were a child You had a fever
Your hands felt your man tits just like two balloons.
Now You've got that faggotry once again
You can't explain, you just do not understand
The eternal training wheel ham.
Lloyd has become comfortably dumb.

Ok, You're just a little prick.
There'll be no more of your whaaaaaaaaah!
When you get that fat ass kicked.
Can you shut the fuck up?
I do believe it's working, good.
That'll keep you stuttering through your shitty show
Come on, fatty, it's time to go.

There is no decent pay you are receiving Nobody leaves a tip, pizza delivery career on the horizon.
Your stupidity only comes through in waves.
Your lips move but I can't hear what you're saying.
When you was a child you caught a fleeting glimpse
Of your whore mommy's fur pie.
You turned to look but it was gone
You cannot put Your finger in it now
The child never grown, the dream of being smart is gone.

Lloyd Davies has become comfortably dumb.

BWHAHAHAHAHAHA You keep telling yourself that, pizza BOY.
The only job you are qualified for is restaurant work, what a loser.
But then, since your older brother is a convicted felon and your dad an

Message-ID <Q0bJf.19641$vU2.7735@newsread3.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Roger, shots himself in the foot"

Billy the illiterate retard Smith screws up again, and his illiteracy is exposed. "It serves him right."
in<hauKf.1410$S25.940@newsread1.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Deserves him right."

Billy "retard" Smith confesses to his generally accepted retarded
status in <LwpLf.2321$F56.2317@newsread3.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"I'm a general retard. bwhahaha"

Billy "spelling champ of the general retards" Smith admits his bad hygiene but is still in denial about his English skills in <QxpLf.2322$F56.1169@newsread3.news.atl.earthlink.net>
"Sure I can spell and smell."

"Billy" the NOtwordSmith fucks up again with this incompete sentence in <qgyNf.5576$S25.341@newsread1.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"So when you got divorced boy, did your finally figure out that your more"

Billy "cumgargler" Smith managed to awaken from his drunken stupor to slobber
in <fbIOf.442$sL2.25@newsread2.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Isn't that you mom weighed"

Mr."Education" Billy Smith steps on his own dick again when he talks about others' "educations" (or educatiion" as he spells it) in <w7IOf.436$sL2.167@newsread2.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Uh, huh. Right LOSER. Still smoking that dope again? By the way how is your
so called educatiion actually doing for you? Those online classes."

<B9IOf.439$sL2.255@newsread2.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"You're whole life has been exhaled before."

Billy "illiterate retard" Smith spikes the "HUH?" factor in this slobbering in <MGqUf.16833$S25.8455@newsread1.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Come on, do it just have you some spiked Kool Aid."

"Didn't" your special-Ed teacher teach you how to spell, Billy?
in <OCqUf.16826$S25.10695@newsread1.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"...didnt Marie teach you to play nice"

"Rhodes scholar" Billy Lardass Davies Smith blunders and blows his cover again in <Et%0g.6340$sq5.1769@newsread2.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Rhode's scholar Scheissman blows his cover again."

Billy "dumbass" Smith steps on his own tiny dick when he tries to criticize others' typos,but he doesn't "perform" well as usual with his blatant "stupidity" in <oCk1g.5958$Es3.3907@newsread3.news.atl.earthlink.net>:
"Noteed!!!!!!!!!!!!! Bwhahahahahahah. You're a brilliant one Scheissman.

You even peform stupid acts on your blatant stupidty"

Billy "dropout Lardass" Smith steps on his own dick when he tries to comment on others' spelling abilities, but he "can't" do any better in Message-ID: <mQr3g.8970$sq5.4914@newsread2.news.atl.earthlink.net>: "Woger cant spell very well anyway."

I have made no death threats as Steve has proven for me (ty steve)

I have made warning
Indeed I hope to never have to carry one of them I would hate clean up steve reamins from the yard if he carried his threats to show up here and force me to shoot him as would no doubt happen if he showed up at Another lie, if you weren't Roger then how and why would you claim that when Heil and his wife came to pay you a visit, you weren't there. Of course, you seemed to know that someone else was there or at least claim so. Not only that but how would you have known Heil had shown up unless someone else was there or you were hiding behind the curtains again. What a puss and a liar. Explain that to us Scheissman. Not to mention that MSN account that you have. Explain to us how you know so much about Wiseman's life yet aren't him. Including things that were brought up in Usenet years ago. You are correct that the "trial" being discussed in the FO is the debt collection trial. However, Baxter can bring up any issues he desires in an effort to argue that he doesn't owe the fine. He will, however, be at a marked disadvantage because the burden of proof will be on him at that point. Also, what the FCC denied him was a hearing before the FCC commissioners which was unlikely to happen and was a misplaced request in this case. He needs to appeal the FO to the proper courts to get this heard.

Right now Baxter is ignoring his due process rights to appeal the FO and have it heard in court. He must appeal the FO within 30 days or it becomes final. If he doesn't fight this in an appeal it will become final and he will end up with the burden of proof. At the appeal the burden of proof is on the FCC if he waits for the debt collection trial he has willfully given up his rights.

Baxter has made a series of serious missteps here and is slowly giving up his rights to due process. His supporters insist that he's being unfairly treated when he's not. Our legal system has it's process and sometimes they don't make a lot of sense to the general public who get most of their "legal" training from the TV shows they watch. You got to follow the rules carefully.

Just because you don't understand the rules does not mean the game is unfair. I would strongly suggest that Baxter obtain the services of a lawyer who does understand the rules. If Baxter thinks he's going to pull a Matlock move in court and get himself off, he's as nuts as some folks claim. A lawyer would advise him on the best way to preserve his rights.

I just wonder how you think Riley Hollingsworth will need to show up in court for this case?

I suppose he may, but why would he need bother with the K1MAN case in the first place?

As for "fact" and "Evidence" usable in court, I would beg to differ with your opinion here. By all appearances and documentation that I've seen, K1MAN is in deep trouble. Unless he has a lot of evidence to offset the claims of the FO the trial will be a slam dunk for the FCC. If Baxter has such evidence, he should have responded to the NAL with this evidence and not tried to hide it or hold it for a trial. It is a serious legal blunder to withhold evidence, unless you are claiming your 5th amendment rights.

If Baxter is claiming 5th amendment rights, yet decides to caught up the withheld information in a court as part of his defence, he's going to regret using this tactic.

This guy needs a good lawyer or the FCC's most junior staff lawyer who just passed the bar is going to run circles around him in court.

Oh, and the ARRL has nothing to do with Baxter's troubles... But you knew that.

Where I agree with your thought I would tell you that from years of experience (dating back to fidonet before the internet)....

It's best to just ignore flames and those who routinely post them. It usually means that the poster has nothing worth saying, or simply enjoys the "fight" he starts. Either way, the best way to not encourage them is to not respond.

Many folks think that because the person they insult is not sitting next to them it's OK to be rude. After all, they can get away with it on news groups like this. It's almost like they somehow get a thrill out of posting insults that most of them wouldn't dare say in public.

Sorta sad if you ask me.

Hmmm.. Seems that the $21K was reasonable considering the number and nature of the rules violations. If you assume the violations are true, what do you think the dollar amount should be?

> 2. Baxter's right to an Administrative hearing under > the Administrative Procedure Act was denied and therefore his rights to > due process under the APA was violated.

No, he requested a hearing before the FCC commissioners which was improper at that point. Right now the proper place for due process here is the Appeal process, which is supposed to be filed with the appropriate court within 30 days of the Forfeiture Order. (Which has not happened, to my knowledge.) It is not the FCC's fault if Baxter doesn't know how to do the right thing to protect is rights.

You are indeed correct, except he can try to raise issues with the fine and these issues would be admissible had he chosen to supply the necessary information requested by the NAL, or if he managed to get the appeal timely filed. The problem with your contention that this is not fair is that you are ignoring the fact that Baxter has failed to protect his own rights.

The rules are fair and published so everybody can know what they need to do. It's not the fault of the FCC if Baxter fails to protect his own rights even if he is ignorant of what the rules mean. If he doesn't want to hire a lawyer to advise him, fine, but if he then complains that the process doesn't match what he thinks is fair, too bad.

I'll bet that if he contacts the FCC right now and agrees to hand in his license, swear off ham radio for life and agree to not use his Part 97 equipment for anything but receiving, they might be willing to forget the fines...

By the way, Lardass, when are you going to be getting that sex change operation, since you like to post as "Christy Davies". The consensus on Nim Busters is that you'd make a great shemale. Maybe you could get a date with Toad, since he loves shemales.

Yes, what little thought you DO have is greatful for you saving your meager resources like that. Your tiny brain would explode if you would overload it. But you are still a fucking imbecile.

Lisping cocksucker Davies, you sure talk tough behind the computer. But you ran your fat mouth online and then was a no-show, twice.
You're the "momma's" boy, you beg her to have sex with you.

>is too scared to show at Dayton.

Just like you were too chickenshit to show at Dalton hamfest when Oris told you he would be there.

>I bet he hasnt been to a hamfest for years.

Actually, he's never been to a hamfest, why would he want to go see a bunch of smelly losers like the ones at Dayton? Besides, he buys his equipment from the store, he isn't like you and have to pick up cheapassed used equipment. HAHAHAHAHAHA!

which means since the final did not exist when they set aside his license he outgh to get a his renewal they may be able to come back later and revoke that license that is another matter

I enevr said it did you keep insisting that what happens to K1man is one block of matters

it isn't I would would the court has all butrdered a vitory fro now in the renewal issue the FO is another matter

7304. Eavesdropping Video Receives 5 Stars Review

The newspapers and journals are full of information about warrantless wiretapping and eavesdropping. What many people do not realize is that the type of eavesdropping occurring for national security purposes is vastly different than the real world of eavesdropping and wiretapping utilized for industrial espionage, law enforcement and by your local private investigator or tech-guy that has crossed the line into illegal eavesdropping.

Now, the realistic world of eavesdropping has been thoroughly exposed in the new two-hour video called "The Red Balloon". Already recognized as the best Issue Awareness Video in 2005 at the international Aurora Awards and given a 5 Stars review in the March issue of Security Management, The Red Balloon presents the government and industry statistics about industrial espionage and eavesdropping, and how big this problem really is. It also reveals the different types of eavesdropping devices used with illegal wiretapping and eavesdropping and the novel techniques utilized by both professional and amateur eavesdroppers.

If you are curious about the eavesdropping industry then you simply must see the powerful informational video presented by one of the world's most recognized experts in the field. To learn more you can go to http://www.tscmvideo.com

Writing in the third person again Roger? It's doubtful he can buy much of anything being the total loser he is. But then again, when your government sugar daddy is there to help, Woger is there with his hand out. Roger is such a coward that he has hid behind the curtains twice when visited not to mention ran away every time someone confronted him. Makes one wonder if he isnt scared of the light. The vast majority of my equipment is brand new and not to mention I suspect, I have a lot more of it than you.

I know you're right but it wasn't always like that in the rec.radio groups. Wars & fights on the bands spilled over to usenet. Now these two groups see the brunt of it. It's really about the same as what you might hear on 27.185 mhz. Eleven meter childishness.

I blame lower testing standards which has allowed more childish people to get licensed. They don't seem to have any integrity to me, do they to you? Sorry, silly question.

The net effect of the "set aside" is that his renewal has not been decided. As K1MAN and others have pointed out he retains his right to operate on his old license until it is decided.

So... I don't think that the "set aside" is the same as a rejection. They are currently just thinking about what they intend to do. (Well, really they are thinking about how they intend to do it.) Actually, I think they are waiting for the FO to become final so they can use it to justify pulling his ticket.

Once the FO becomes final, then they can use that as justification for the denial of the renewal. Assuming Baxter hasn't filed the appeal then I expect this to happen within the next few days.

but with rule they used to set it aside they can no longer stall on that basis the FO is not liekly to become final for years

maybe not the court has ruled the basline used to delay was not leegal if baxter has even sent a letter sayin i intend to apeal that is likely enough to get the license renaewal taken care before the FO is ruled on finaly

You have it correct sir. The monkey from Glendale called himself "Crow" and was booted from ovis.net. Which stands for Ohio Valley Internet Services of Moundsville, WV. Which is a few miles from Glendale in Marshall county. Mental problems are a very important part of his life, after all would you expect him to act normal, it is West Virginny you know.

again why do you care?

you are conducting harrasment of me

why?

why do you harass and stalk people hardly you don't know what miliatant is you are psuhing you milltant religionous agenda where it desn't belong.

you have the right to do that, as I have the right to post what I see fit your problem is that you can't face the fact I have the same rights as you do you want an end to defense of My Bisexaulity it can be had easiily you mustb(and the rest must refrain from atacking ti and refrain from using the cry or "faggot" as an arguement in the NG

it is that simple but the likes of you have proven you can't do it

Unless Baxter has an appeal in the mail right now, the FO is final. He had 30 days to appeal, now it's a debt collection case. I suppose they may give him a few extra days to avail himself of his rights, but I don't think it will be a long wait.

So I suspect that the license will be yanked shortly and then the fun will begin.. :)

Call it what you wish, but it is still spam. You are in violation of your ISPs Terms Of Service and if you are not careful, Wussman will go whining to your provider and lodge a complaint with hopes of getting you shut down. He has done this to many others in the past, so be forewarned. He is a snake in the grass, a backstabber who is not to be trusted.

My, Woger. These guys really think a lot of you to put up a blog such as this one. You sure know how to win and make friends, don't you? What you lack in finesse, you more than make up for with unadulterated idiocy.

not according to my ISP Dave heil made similar complaints they contacted I susgested they take a look at the Ng they agreed I am simply defending myself
>You are in violation of your

he has gone whing there (or at some of his sock puppets have)
>He > has done this to many others in the past, so be forewarned.
I am sure he has complained but with his maaner I I doubt he is much listened and asume he suceeds I can to another provider, as Todd did indeed his sucess is unlikely realted to any action or non action i take. if he can assmeble his brain cells and tell a good enough lie he may get some where, But I have a sample of his lies, and I am not worried, besides he would realy need to use some other email adress than "marky Morgan rapes boys" to taken seriously and he can be counted to overblow any claim into being obvious flasehood, Robeson does that too, Indeed I have a better rep NOW amoug local hams BECAUSE of the visousness of Steves attacks on me

>He is a snake in and I only trust him to be a shit head, on that he never disapoints Wussman likes the attention, bad as it may be. It makes him feel popular. If it were not for bloggers such as http://whywogersucks.blogspot.com/ he would get no attention at all. His life is one of boredom and the poor guy needs attention be it good or bad. He is kind of like you and your retarded fixation with Steve. You, like Wiseman with Lloyd, "see" Steve everywhere whether Steve posts or not. You really should get over your imbalance. Steve is honest in that he posts over his REAL callsign and has nothing to hide.

You could learn something from Steve if you would leave your fantasy land and your mind was not such a closed book.
And while we are discussing this? Why do you not get and use a spell checker? Your posts only fortify Wiseman's comments that you sound extremely stupid. He seems to have a valid point on this one.

no i don't a forger chooses to "admit" it for me but it is part of the lies often told on here likely a Robeson post but could easily be others It is Robeson responiblity since he he is the one to first accuse me here of being a

People on his blog at http://n9oglvoice.blogspot.com are confirming what you just posted. Tood's home machine hasn't been connected to the net since last Friday. That's something he's never done before, because all his fellow Lolicon users wouldn't be able to access his cartoon kiddie porn. Don't it make you cry?

well there you may have something, but obviously he has paid for his offense

nor are my children "packed turds" you OTOH comit libel in claiming that if you were man enough to sign a real name (and making your post without doing is a violation of federal law these day , not that anyone would enforce it) Id look into to suing you (seeing if you have anything worth taking etc.

have a nice day troll

I have a valid license and radio equipment what would I need a waver for?
